Office of
THE PRESIDENT

Mrs. Mary L. Jones Johnson
2901 South Raymond Avenue
Los Angeles 7, California

Dear Mrs. Johnson:

It was a real surprise to receive your letter of February 25 in which you expressed sympathy in the loss of my wife.

Although we knew that she could not survive unless there was immediate improvement, we were not ready to see her go. Things happened so suddenly that it was impossible for us to get word to many of our personal friends, so I understand fully why I am just hearing from you.

I am certainly happy to know that you are living near Ada, and I am asking you, as a friend, to visit her frequently and let me know how she is getting along. She is a person who does not complain and, consequently, if she is not doing well I have to secure the information from other sources. Kindly visit her sometime in the near future and let me know how she is recovering from her illness.

There is scarcely a day that passes that I do not think of you and the fine service you rendered our Registrar's office.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

E. B. Evans
President
