THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

January 28, 1965

Dear Mrs. Johnson:

It was a pleasure to hear from you after all these years.

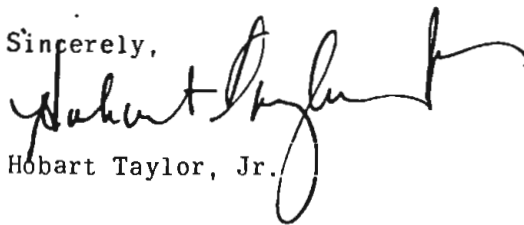

Your image of my classroom conduct is very flattering -- I regret that my "bubbling over" is now with considerable more age, but I hope with no less "vitality."

President Johnson surely appreciated the kind remarks in your letter to him.

I trust that you received your invitation to the Inaugural. If not, please let me know as it is my desire that you get one.

Give my regards to Mr. Johnson and accept my wishes for every good thing in life for both of you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Hobart Taylor, Jr.", written in black ink.

Hobart Taylor, Jr.

Mrs. Mary L. Johnson
