VOL 1 NO 38 WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1985

UP-N-DOWN 290 By Marty

I hate it when I do dumb stuff, but my hating it doesn't seem to help much. Last weekend Cheri and I decided to take a Sunday ride, and I remembered about the Fireman's Fish Fry over in New Ulm. I'd heard that they put on a pretty good feed, so we headed over that way, hurrying to get there before the usual crowds ate all of the food.

We arrived at Firemans Park about the time the fish fry was in full swing, and were a bit surprised to find a somewhat modest crowd, composed to what we had been told to expect. But, the folks were friendly, and greeted us at the door with a sign-in book and nametags for us to wear. It was only after we were in the hall that something began to seem a bit fishy, (or non-fishy!) as there were no firemen cooking fish. As a matter of fact, there weren't any fish at all! When we asked one gentleman where we were supposed to go to pay for our tickets he said "Oh, It's all free, just help yourself."

Now I may be dumb, but I'm not stupid, and anyone knows that a fireman's fundraiser doesn't start off with a free feed. The table was loaded with good things to eat, but all of it was of the home-made, covered dish variety. Cheri & I looked at each other just about the time someone behind us mentioned what a nice family reunion this was, and we both began easing toward the door, hoping that no one would notice our red faces.

Out in the parking lot, we asked a fellow, "by the way, when is the Fireman's Fish Fry going to be this year?" "Next weekend," he said, "right here!"

Now, if Winona and Wesley Glueck promise to not tell the family who those two strangers were at the reunion, Cheri & I promise to stop crashing the

Waller County Peace Officers Hold Swearing-In Ceremonies

By Sallie Planty

Six officers of the recently formed Waller County Peace Officers Association were sworn in during brief ceremonies Tuesday, April 16, at the Pecan Tree Restaurant in Waller. Taking the oath of their offices were Association President Albert Sneed, Vice President Joe Garcia, Secretary-Treasurer Janice Fife and Directors Randy Johnson, Lonnie Cullins and Ed Michalke. Sargeant-at-Arms Clem Reynolds and Directors Rod Leggett and Randy Smith were not present.

The oaths were administered by Oliver Kitzman, Judge of the 155th Judicial District, which encompasses Waller, Austin and Fayette Counties.

Albert Sneed is with the Texas State Police and has been a D.P.S. officer in Waller County for 20 years. Joe Garcia is chief of police in the City of Brookshire. Janice Fife is an officer with the Hempstead Police Department. Clem Reynolds is Justice of the Peace in the 3rd Precinct with offices in the City of Waller.

Randy Johnson is chief of police of the City of Hempstead.

Randy Smith is adult probation officer. Lonnie Cullins heads the Waller City Police Department, Ed Michalke is with the D.P.S. at Brookshire, and Rod Leggett is Constable for Precinct Three.

The organization was formed between Jan. 30 and April 15 and has 50 charter members

Rain Fails To Dampen Spirits Of Waller Little League Opening Day

By Sallie Planty

The rain clouds and the sun battled it out on Saturday morning, while officials of the Waller Little League sped through the day's events in a matter of hours in an effort to get everything in before the rains came.

To the disappointment of many, the long-awaited hot air

1985 Waller County 4-H Queen Crowned Sunday

Michelle Polk, representing the Bracey Island 4-H Club, was crowned 1985 4-H Queen during ceremonies held at the Waller County Fairgrounds Sunday.

The Waller Middle School 6th grader was escorted by her brother, Keith, an 8th grade student at Waller Junior High. The new queen won her crown due to the salesmanship of members of her club, who together, sold $1886 worth of tickets to the Sunday barbeque.

The hall overflowed with people from all over the county, who apparently came to the fair-balloon ride, courtesy of Cal-Gas, had to be cancelled, with a lot of us wondering when we'll ever get the chance again. But, despite it all, the stands at the Waller Bulldog Stadium were packed and spirits were high as all joined in giving the 1985 ball season a grand send off.

The cake auction was a huge success, with bidders literally gobbling up some of the most delicious and attractive cakes every assembled in one place. There were cakes shaped like Big Bird, He-Man (Masters of the Universe), Baseball Diamonds, Bats, Balls and Gloves - all encasing flavors of every kind and description.

Officers Sponsor Blood Drive

Members of the Waller County Peace Officers Association have voted unanimously to support a blood drive for the benefit of a young leukemia victim, the son of one of the association's charter members. The decision was reached during the third monthly meeting of the group, held at 7 p.m. Tuesday, April 16, at the Pecan Tree Restaurant in Waller.

According to Secretary-Treasurer Janice Fife of the Hempstead Police Department, Mark Lester, 12-year-old son of Howard Lester, a deputy of the Waller County Sheriff's Department, has received several total transfers of blood since his illness was diagnosed, at considerable expense to his family.

"A bloodmobile unit is willing to come to Waller County on April 29 to collect blood for Mark," she added, "and the effective ratio would be two pints of blood to every pint he's received."

In response to several questions on procedure, Fife added that blood units collected beyond Mark's needs would be given to other needy people at the request of the donor.

After some discussion, the members present voted to have the drive on April 29 at two sites, with one being held in Brookshire and one in Hempstead.

In Brookshire, the drive will take place at Royal High School, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

In Hempstead, the site will be the First United Methodist Church, corner of Main and 7th, from 3 to 9 p.m.

Anyone having questions can contact Janice Fife at 826-2582 before 4 p.m. After that, she may be contacted through the Sheriff's Department.

party at family reunions.

Like I said, I hate it when I do dumb stuff!

My neighbor was telling me about one more reason why I don't care to live down in the big city.

He bought a new pickup truck last week, and he and the Mrs. went down to a mall to do some shopping last Friday night. When they came out, their two day old truck was gone. Vanished. No sign of broken glass, etc., but obviously stolen. He immediately went to a phone, to call the Houston Police to report the theft and get some help. He says that it took him seven phone calls before he found someone he could even report the theft to, and he never could get a policeman to even come there to investigate or try to help.

Somehow, that story doesn't surprise me. I lived in Manhattan for a while in the late 50's and it was getting like that even back then. Houston's headed in the same direction, unless I miss my guess. I hope that our law enforcement officers never get that overworked or jaded. Lets not let it happen here.

When I tell about police happenings around here, I prefer this kind of story. I seems as though a little guy in Waller was missing the other evening, and the local police were called on to help in the search. Police, family and neighbors all joined in the search, and I'm sure it was quite frightening for the boy's parents there for awhile, but a thorough re-search of the house found him fast asleep under a pile of blankets. Nobody was any happier than Chief Cullins, who came forth with the age-old philosophy of "alls well that ends well." I'll bet it didn't take seven calls to get the Waller police on the scene, either.

See you, up-n-down the road.

who represent virtually every area of law in Waller County. Members come from the Texas Department of Public Safety, Hempstead Police Department, Brookshire Police Department, Waller Police Department, the Constables and their Deputies from all four precincts, the Waller County Sheriff's Department, Adult and Juvenile Probation Officers, Game Wardens, the Waller County Attorney, Judges and City Attorneys.

According to President Sneed, "We organized this association to provide a central and common direction. Previously, we all spent our time working in our own respective forces and, while we met in the course of our work and shared goals and points of view as individuals, we have never had a middle ground where we could express ourselves as a group.

"We have plans for scholarships, blood drives, as well as social events that show another side of law enforcement that, perhaps, hasn't been seen before. As an organization, we also will provide citizens of the County an opportunity to individually support some of our projects and support the association as a whole."

One of the ways that Waller County citizens can support the organization is through associate memberships. These are not open to everyone. Applicants must be approved by the Board of Directors, but once approved, associate members are entitled to attend the monthly meetings and all social functions. Dues for associate members are $100 yearly.

Supporting Memberships are also available to approved persons. Dues are $25 yearly and do not entitle these members to meetings and social functions.

In other action taken during the April 16 meeting, members approved a minor change in the by-laws which will insure the inclusion of all peace officers, whether appointed or elected.

Also Police Chiefs Johnson, Garcia and Cullins reported that the art departments of their respective high schools, Hempstead, Royal, and Waller, have agreed to participate in a symbol-designing contest. Once one has been selected, it will become the logo for the association and be used on stationery bulletins and on membership plaques.

Members also voted to make the next meeting, scheduled for May 11, a first annual family picnic. The event will be held at Springer Lake.

Sam Houston Urged To Fight

By Mildred Abshier

After having spent two weeks at the Brazos river encampment, just four miles below Hempstead on the Groce Plantation, Sam Houston began to move his Texan Army eastward. It was on April 14, 1836, that the then Secretary of War, Thomas Rusk, visited General Houston at the Brazos River encampment and admonished him to stop retreating and begin to fight. Sam Houston's reply was, "I consulted none...held no councils of war. If I err the blame is mine."

At any rate, Houston began to move his army out, encamping on the night of April 14-15 on the Donoho Plantation just a few miles southeast of Hempstead. All students of Texas history know of the trek of the Texan Army eastward to the San Jacinto River area where that short-lived battle took place and consummated the independence of Texas, which was declared at Washington On The Brazos on March 2.

Without doubt, Houston's Army was a rags, tags, and bobtails outfit there having been some problem with discipline. Reportedly Houston brought the Army under control at Hempstead by having two soldiers, who disregarded orders and failed to heed disciplinary measures, hanged. Others seemed to have received his message.

And, lest we forget, Waller County will be 112 years old on April 28.

What Is An Emergency Medical Technician?

By Wayne Jones
Cypress Creek EMS Association
An EMT is the man or woman who lives next door and is the one called when you have a medical problem. An EMT is a woman who puts her family's dinner on hold when she is called to help a person in need. An EMT is a person who leaves his dinner or party guests to render aid.

An EMT is a person who leaves the comfort of his home at any time, day or night, in all kinds of weather to help others.

An EMT is a neighbor who is called to your house when your child has overdosed and the other neighbors never hear of your child's problem.

An EMT is a person who risks his own life in the middle of the street during a driving rainstorm trying to save a life.

An EMT is a person who stands waist deep in a drainage ditch full of water trying to stabilize a broken body.

An EMT is a person who carries all sorts of medical equipment, in the August heat, for a quarter of a mile or more to help someone - and knowing, all the while, that they will have to carry both the patient and the equipment back to the ambulance.

An EMT is a person who is called out of home in the middle of the night and cannot go back to sleep because of the trauma they have seen, knowing that they will have to go to work or take care of their family the next day with little or no sleep and there is no guarantee that the same thing will not happen again the next night.

An EMT is a person who carries stomach sedatives and mouth wash so they can settle their stomach and get the foul taste out of their mouth after giving CPR to a person who has thrown up in a full beard.

An EMT is a person who runs into a storm door in the dark of night and wonders what the hell happened.

An EMT is a person who gets kicked in the face while trying to help a drunk or an overdose victim.

An EMT is a person who remains calm and renders life saving aid when all they can see are broken and torn bodies.

An EMT is a person who frantically tries to wash the blood off their hands and face while en route to another emergency so they won't frighten the patient or patient's family when they arrive to render aid.

An EMT is a person who continues to walk toward the scene when all they want to do is to turn around and run in the other direction.

An EMT is a person who has seen more suffering and death than any person should have to experience.

An EMT is a person who cries when they are unable to save a patient.

An EMT is a person who laughs with joy when they deliver a baby and goes to the hospital on a day off to see "their" baby.

An EMT is a person who risks their life driving in rush hour traffic to find out that it was only a prank call.

An EMT is a person who goes home and gives their own child a little extra loving after seeing a child die.

An EMT is a person who cannot get the smell of a horribly burned victim out of their nose, hair and clothes.

An EMT is a person who gets mad at a suicide victim because they were not given a chance to help.

An EMT is a person who knows that they will probably be injured enroute or on a scene at some point in their career.

An EMT is a person who pulls a fever thermometer out of their own mouth when a call comes in and runs out into a cold rain to help someone. When they return home with a chill and peek up their fever thermometer, they see 101 degrees on it.

An EMT is a person who goes into a pit of raw sewage to help a trapped victim.

An EMT is a person who cares.

So, when you are awakened in the middle of the night by the sound of thunder, the flash of lightning and the pounding of rain on your roof and hear a siren scream in the night, you know that EMTs will be risking their lives trying to help some unknown stranger.

Will you, then, take a moment to offer a prayer and silently give them a "thank you" before turning over in your warm bed and falling back to sleep?

(Editor's Note: Wayne Jones, president of the Board of Directors of the Cypress Creek Emergency Medical Services Association, delivered this tribute at the Association's Annual Volunteer Banquet earlier this year.)

Marine Academy Promotes G. N. Welch

Marine Military Academy Cadet Private Gilford Nicholas

Welch, 17, son of Mrs. Mary Alice Cure of Waller, and Dr. Gary D. Welch, DDS, of Houston, has been promoted to Cadet Private First Class. He was awarded the promotion in recognition of his performance in academics, military leadership, and athletics at the Academy.

Marine Military Academy is a private, military, college preparatory boarding school for boys in grades 8 through 12, located in Harlingen, Texas. Post high school specialized instruction is also offered. It is the only school in the world which offers military leadership training based on the traditions of the United States Marine Corps.

The combination of fundamental academic education and Marine oriented military training is directed toward producing self-discipline scholars who are mentally alert, physically fit and responsible citizens.

Prior to entering the academy, Welch attended Waller High School.

Shriners Sponsor Circus Trip

The Waller County Shrine Club arranged to give 220 tickets to the Waller I.S.D. so that Middle School students could attend the Shrine Circus in Houston on Saturday, April 20. Six buses pulled out of the high school parking lot at 9 a.m. that day, filled with happy kids. Fred Looft was principally responsible for getting the tickets and Margaret Massey was responsible for working with the school district. Other local Shriners involved were Tom Kenney, John Bishop, John Crowhurst, Artie Gleghorn, J.E. Massey, Johnnie Hooker, Glen Hamner, Marty Cole, Jim Sinex, Doyle King, Bill Jones and President James Ladd. Police escort to Houston was supplied by Deputy Constable Glenn Brown.

grounds directly from church for dinner. The threat of rain and the light drizzle that eventually fell did nothing to hamper the activities.

When everyone had their fill of succulent barbeque, beans, salad and relishes, they settled down to watch and participate in the cake auction.

It was obvious they had come to buy - at whatever price - and when it was over, Auctioneer Bill Jordan announced that more than $3000 had been raised.

Following the auction, the queen candidates were escorted to the stage, led by 1984 4-H Queen Holly Garrett, a ninth grade student at Waller High School, accompanied by 16-year-old Mark Hegemeyer.

Candidates were Christy Esker, Royal 4-H; Kathy Dawson, Monaville 4-H; Jennifer Baker, Prairie View Area 4-H; Mary Scroggins, Pine Island; Marcy Zapalac, Hempstead Community 4-H; DeAnne Garrett, Waller County 4-H Horse Club; Shelley Mazurkiewicz, Rock Island 4-H; Toni Thomas, Union, Fieldstore and Friendship 4-H; Michelle Polk, Bracey Island 4-H; Emily Derrick, Hempstead Youth 4-H; Marianne Bell, Pin Oak 4-H; and Erica Mahac, Macedonia 4-H.

Had the choice been up to a panel of judges and the basis had been beauty, poise and achievement, the selection would have been a hard decision. Luckily, the representative of the club selling the greatest number of barbeque tickets wins the crown in 4-H competition.

Second runner up, winning the title of Duchess, was Rock Island's Shelley Mazurkiewicz, and first runner up was Royal's Princess Christy Esker.

Queen Michelle Polk took her victory walk to thunderous applause.

The entire event was extremely well run, from the barbeque, to the cake auction, to the crowning ceremonies. The barbeque was in the capable hands of Joe Kostak, who started the fires at 2:30 a.m., assisted by Larry Peters, Harold Garrett, Charlie Swize, Robert Williams and Charlie Wilganowski.

The auction ran smoothly with County Extension Agent Nora Hodges in command on the floor and the inimitable Bill Jordan calling the bids.

A team of county extension agents and 4-H parents made sure everything went right and on schedule from 11:30 a.m. on.

Credit should also go to the wonderful area businesses and individuals who were on hand to help raise money by purchasing cakes. They are the same people who attend all the sales which benefit the county's youth and their generosity does not go unnoticed.

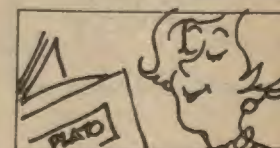

Incoming Queen Michelle Polk takes her first walk, escorted by her brother, Keith Polk. She is a sixth grade student at Waller Middle School, he is an eighth grader at Waller Junior High.

Local Producer Speaks In Rosenberg

Ollie Williams, a local watermelon, corn producer and agricultural instructor in Brenham, was one of the feature speakers during the Five-County Vegetable Seminar.

According to David McGregor Waller County extension agent, Williams' topic was to share the success of the Hempstead watermelon market with other interested individuals who may want to develop a market. Williams said, "Even though the Hempstead Cooperative was a success in 1984, it will take hard work to continue to do the same thing in 1985." Williams stressed hard work many times during his speech.

This seminar was to share the latest research information on vegetable production as well as marketing with interested individuals. This five-county seminar will allow us to maximize our use of resource persons and get current information out to our producers at the same time. If you have questions about vegetable production, please call the County Extension office at 826-3357.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.

Interspersed among the cakes were items such as quilts, crafts and a real biggie - a gas grill donated by Cal-Gas, which everybody in the stands said they wanted.

As the weather worsened and rain began falling in earnest, the names of winners in the raffle were drawn. Those winners are as follows:

The three-wheeler donated by Waller Implement was won by Mildred McCracken; the hind quarter of beef, donated by Kenney's Market, was won by Jimmy Astobata; the 12-gauge shotgun, donated by Northwest Ford-Mercury, was won by Ruth Bonner; the men's Pulsar watch and the ladies' Pulsar watch, both donated by Harris Jewelry, were won by Stanley Christman and John Darvalla, respectively; the black and white television donated by S&N Appliances, was won by The Amandos; and the Kodak Disk Camera, donated by Waller Pharmacy, was won by Harold Kramer.

Also, the 5" AC-DC television, donated by Showtime Video, was won by Ellie Whatley; the $20 gift certificate, donated by Dell's Deli, was won by Jeanette Hargrave; the Houston Astros tickets, donated by the Astros, were won by Martha Kostak; a skating party for 20, donated by Silver Wings, was won by Shirley Cooper; the $100 gift certificate from Amado's Market of Magnolia, was won by Gladys Hagen; a free check up or teeth cleaning from Dr. Wayne Norris, was won by Mark Smiley; and four free games at the Tomball Bowling Center were won by Esther Moore.

Two 12-quart coolers, donated by Igloo, were won by Ann Stafford and Adam Smith; a skating party, donated by Lone Star Skating Rink, was won by Pgt Dunaway; five Safari Pines day passes were won by Danny Kente; Meals from McDonalds of Tomball were won by Dan Patterson, P.J. Neal and Louis Atkins; dinner for four at Pizza Hut was won by Patsy Marburger; and one medium and one large pizza, donated by Pizza 3Hut, were won by Vicky Long, James Waneke and E.W. MacSwain.

Dinner for three, donated by The Depot, was won by a Houston man; Caps donated by Haney's Feed were won by Nelson Brumley and Rick Scott; statuary from Frazier's Concrete was won by Darwin Hargrave; and a portrait package was won by Trey Ramsey and two barbeque plates, donated by The Ranch House, were won by Nicky Brumson.

The Little League Association wishes to thank all who donated articles for the raffle and the auction, as well as all those businesses who sponsor a team.

Their contributions to Waller youth is deeply appreciated.

NEWS

You can hit the trail to a terrific trip by discovering Oklahoma.

One part of Oklahoma that's particularly OK is Tulsa. You can branch out from there to enjoy any—or all—of seven one-day tours. One shows you Tulsa's roots: Creek Council Oak, the ancient meeting site for the Creek Indians; the acclaimed Gilcrease Institute of American History and Art and an amphitheatre where the musical "Oklahoma!" is presented every summer.

A Touch of Class tour takes visitors to the Performing Arts Center, Tulsa Rose Garden and Tulsa University.

Land of the Cherokees tour features Sequoyah State Park, The Cherokee National Museum and Ft. Gibson Stockade where Sam Houston once served. There's a "living museum," Cherokee village to see on this trip.

The Will Rogers Country tour includes Will Rogers State Park/Birthplace, Will Rogers Memorial and J.M. Davis Gun Museum.

The Land of the Osage trip lets you see the Pawnee Bill Museum, Ponca City/Pioneer Woman Memorial, a 17-foot memorial to the spirit of the women who helped build America; and the Osage Tribal Museum.

In Woolaroc Country there's the Tom Mix Museum for aficionados of the silent film star and all he stood for.

The Creek Nation tour shows visitors the Muskogee/Five Civilized Tribes Museum and the U.S.S. Batfish.

Chamber Sets May 18th For Sidewalk Sale

The Hempstead Chamber of Commerce Executive Board met Monday, April 15, with the following members present: Hal Black, president; Mary Santerre, secretary; David Fife; Betty Vines; James Hauck; Beatrice Sowell; and Bill Caesar.

The chief topic of discussion was the May Sidewalk Sale to be held May 18 around the city square. Anyone interested in acquiring a booth for arts and crafts, please contact Mary Santerre at 826-6312 or 826-3471. A Chamber-sponsored barbeque is planned as well as the merchants' Sidewalk Sale.

The 1985 Chamber of Commerce active member list was reviewed; members include: Roy Wiesner; Charles Karisch; Devine Pharmacy; Hempstead Printing and Office Supply; Citizens State Bank; Hempstead Insurance Agency and Josey Realty; Northwest Ford Mercury, Inc.; Dairy Queen; Lawrence Marshall Chevrolet; Bluebonnet Savings Association of Texas; Hempstead Abstract Co.; Killians Auto Parts; First Savings Association; Hempstead Mobile Homes; Warren's Insurance and Real Estate Agency; Fowlers Supermarket; Waller Co. Electric; Repka's Hardware and Service Inc.; Hempstead L.P. Company; The Sonic; Lewis Grocery; and the First Christian Church of Waller County.

All businesses, churches and individuals who have not joined the Chamber of Commerce are urged to do so. Business dues are $75 and individual dues are $25 per year. Please contact the Chamber secretary for an application at 826-6312 or 826-3471.

The next general meeting of the Hempstead Chamber of Commerce will be May 6 at 7 p.m. at the Rustic Oak. Your presence will be greatly appreciated.

REFINISHING TIPS FROM

Homer Formby

Q. My neighbor has a lovely dining room set that she bought unfinished, then stained herself. I'd like to try it too. Any tips?

A. It's as easy as one, two, three. First, PREPARE the surface. Sand lightly with fine sandpaper or garnet paper, then clean the piece with denatured alcohol. Apply wood seal if you're working with soft woods like pine. (This keeps the stain from streaking.) Then, STAIN. Brush-on, pigmented stains are ideal for first-time projects. Brush the stain on darker than you want it, wait five minutes, then wipe off the excess until you have the desired shade. Now, FINISH by brushing on a varnish or polyurethane finish to protect your piece. And remember—read and follow all label directions for best results.

Formby

I'll be happy to answer any questions on wood care. Send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Homer Formby, P.O. Box 667P, Olive Branch, MS 38654.

Nine County Beef Cattle Field Day

By David E. McGregor
Waller County Extension Agent
Lee County will host the annual 9-County Beef Cattle Field Day Wednesday, April 24. This will be held at the Diamond Lazy J
Embryos, Inc., near Old Dime Box. Registration will begin at 1:30 p.m.

The Field Day program will include: a tour of the donor flushing and embryo transfer facilities and equipment, a live animal beef cow selection demonstration, generation upgrading program, a presentation on embryo transfers, a tour of summer and winter forages and a discussion on year-round pasture management.

Dr. Larry Boleman, Extension
Livestock Specialist; Don Dorsett, Extension Forage Specialist; John Newburn, Director of Field Services, Beefmaster

Breeders Universal; Spencer
Roberts and Joe Oden, Granada Genetics; will present the programs.

Diamond Lazy J Embryos, Inc. is owned by Gary Jordan and Doug Abshire and managed by Bubba Bain. The nine counties involved are Lee, Austin, Brazos Burleson, Fayette, Grimes, Harris Waller and Washington.

Diamond Lazy J Embryos, Inc.
is located at the end of Lee County Road 400, which intersects Highway 21 about 9 miles east of Highway 77 and about 12 miles west of Caldwell. A Diamond Lazy J Embryos, Inc.
sign is posted at this point on Highway 21. From there, follow the signs to the ranch site.

All beef cattle owners and other interested persons are invited.
Refreshments and a stew supper will be provided free of charge to all who attend.

On Their Way To Regionals

Darron Tisdell (left) and Eric Magnusson (right) have qualified for the 4A track regionals to be held at San Jacinto Junior College, Pasadena, on May 4 and 5. Tisdell, a senior at Waller High School, hurled the discus 157'3" for first place in district. It was his personal best. He also placed fourth in the shotput with a toss of 49'3". This is his second chance in regionals. He qualified as a Sophomore in 1983, also in discus. Tisdell will be attending Blinn Junior College in Brenham on a football scholarship this fall.

Magnusson, also a Waller High School senior, vaulted 14' in district competition to take first place and post his own personal best in this event. He placed second in the high jump with 6' and will be competing in the high jumping at regionals, as well. Magnusson is also looking forward to attending Blinn Junior College and has applied for scholarship assistance in track, although he excelled in football this past year, his first time out. This will be his second trip to regional competition. Magnusson represented Waller in the pole vault as a Junior in 1984. Coaches Jim Palmer and Jerry Faigle have high hopes for their two field event stars, pointing out that they have both posted personal bests when in counted - in district competition. With 40 schools on the tough 4A level sending representatives, they feel that Tisdell and Magnusson are up to the challenge. We wish them the best of luck.

WHEAT LEAF RUST POSING THREAT

Wheat growers in Waller County need to keep a sharp lookout for leaf rust disease on their crop this spring.

Conditions seem to be right for a major leaf rust problem over much of the state, points out David McGregor, county agent with The Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System. Leaf rust is caused by a fungus and appears as small, round orange spots on the leaves. A heavy infection will defoliate the plant and interfere with grain development.

Many wheat varieties are susceptible to leaf rust fungus, but the incidence of the organism varies greatly from year to year, notes McGregor. One of the best practices for dealing with leaf rust is to plant resistant varieties or at least several different varieties of each year. Then, if the disease becomes a problem, not all varieties may be affected. Producers that plant all their wheat acreage to a susceptible variety generally suffer the greatest losses when a leaf rust epidemic hits.

With good yield prospects this spring because of favorable moisture conditions, producers will need to consider applying a fungicide to their wheat if leaf rust becomes a threat, says McGregor. Using a fungicide is a good alternative if the potential yield exceeds 40 bushels per acre.

Two types of fungicides are available that vary in effectiveness and cost, explains McGregor. The systemic-type, Bayleton, is quite effective but expensive. Protectant-type fungicides such as Manzate 200 and Dithane M-45 are less expensive for only a short period.

Time of fungicide application is also critical, emphasizes McGregor. A producer must consider the susceptibility of the variety being grown, the potential for continued disease development, and the growth stage of the crop. Generally, the flag leaf should be protected from the time it is formed until the grain is filled.

When the threat of leaf rust is great and potential yields exceed 60 bushels per acre, growers should apply a fungicide prior to the development of the flag leaf. In this case, the systemic-type fungicide should be applied at the time of jointing and again as the flag leaf begins to unfold.

With protectant-type fungicides, additional applications may be needed to get the same level of control, notes McGregor. Actual control level depends on how well the fungicide application is timed, how well it is applied by air, and best results are achieved when the correct dosage is made in 5 gallons of water per acre.

Producers expecting a good wheat harvest this spring should be able to get a good return on money spent for fungicides to control leaf rust, assuming there are no other limiting factors, says McGregor.

Dual-Gard™ Ear Tags offer the cattleman features and benefits not found on tags introduced prior to 1985.

Cattlemen have become accustomed to the convenience of insect control with insecticidal, cattle ear tags.

However, Dual-Gard™ is only one part of a total insect control program. For a more detailed explanation, get in touch with your animal health dealer.

Earlier the cattle industry has seen the introduction of several single, insecticidal ear tags. Yet, they have not offered any new benefits to the cattleman.

DUAL-GARD™ The power packed combination insecticide ear tag.

Waller Middle-Schoolers Burn Up The Track

Coach Richie Plemper of the Waller Middle School scheduled some track events held at the school during the past week and ending on Monday. Teams of boys and girls from each class ran relays against the clock each day during P.E. The winners will be announced next week. The events were held at the school, in lieu of the annual field day at Waller Stadium. Describing the track as "part cross-country when you hit the holes on the far side," Plemper appeared to be having as much fun as the kids cheering on the sidelines. In these pictures, teams from Mrs. Rollins' and Mrs. Wheelers' classes are competing. The winning homeroom teacher receives a trophy.
