Nautilus Club -

Miss M. E. Suarez was elected president of the Nautilus Club at its first meeting for this school year. This organization has made a gift of a new radio to the Practice School. The children are happy. Thanks.

State Teachers Association -

The Annual Session of the State Teachers Association will convene in Beaumont, Texas, November 26-29. It is our hope that Prairie View will have a large representation there.

Railroad Schedules -

The Southern Pacific has agreed to stop the Northbound "Sunbeam" at Prairie View for revenue passengers going beyond Navasota and the Southbound "Sunbeam" to discharge revenue passengers coming from north of Navasota.

The Hospital -

The American College of Surgeons Association has recently given the Prairie View Hospital A Class rating.

The Band -

I wish to thank those of our staff for the liberal contribution to the fund to pay the expenses of the band to Dallas on the occasion of the Prairie View-Wiley game. Of the $114.00 necessary to cover this expense we raised $96.00. It is the little things which test the breadth of our interest and strength of our loyalty.

Pleased -

The type of work being done at Prairie View now pleases me.

Knute Rockne -

There is a valuable lesson in these words of Rockne's assistant coach:

"It wasn't so much strategy, skill and quickness of thinking that created Knute Rockne. It was because he "knew". He knew life, he knew ambitions and failure and success. He had his share of them all, yet, in all he was greater in defeat than success. Defeat was his high road to success".

I am

Yours truly,

W. R. Banks

P. S. Meeting at usual time and place.
