Beg Pardon -

Through an oversight the News Letter last month failed to mention the beautification efforts of (a) Mrs. J. M. Johnson, Crawford Hall, and (b) Miss Henrietta Farrell, Laundry.

Observations -

We desire to call attention to the special efforts of Lawn Beautification on the part of (a) Mrs. Clarence McDaniel, and (b) Mrs. H. G. Dickerson.

Worthy of Note -

Mrs. Hallie A. Collier, P. V. 1931, has just published a beautiful song entitled: "I Am Living my Life for You." The publisher is the Frank Hardin Company, New York, New York. It is one of the hits of the season. Buy a copy for your personal use. Congratulations, Mrs. Collier.

Unchanging Purpose -

Every institution has a purpose. The purpose of Prairie View may be stated in these words:

A. To make available for the colored citizens of Texas the best possible training in the fields designed in the program of a Land Grant College, which can be more specifically stated as:

1. Liberal Arts and Sciences
2. Military Training
3. Vocational Training in
 - a. Agriculture
 - b. Home Arts
 - c. Industrial Arts

B. Strict emphasis shall be made on the points of:

1. Constructive Leadership
2. Lofty Ideals
3. Character Building

All of the available resources of the institution--material, spiritual, and human--shall be employed to carry forward the purposes of Prairie View as stated above.

FINALLY -

"Faculty members should set a high value upon scholarship, a higher value upon human ability and still a higher value upon Human Character." -----Dr. Horn

Faithfully yours,

W. R. Banks
