MR. AND MRS. GENERAL S. JOHNSON

History was made for Trinity Baptist Church on June 9, 1946, when the Organ Guild of the Church sponsored a reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. General S. Johnson, 2901 South Raymond Avenue, which attracted five-hundred guests. Members of the Organ Guild in the above picture, are, from left to right; (bottom row) Mrs. P. Delores Jolly, Mrs. Jayne Hudson (Advisor), Mrs. Virgie Small (President), Mr. Jonathan L. Caston (Pastor), Mrs. E. S. Redd, Mrs. Beatrice Small, Mrs. Eunice Johnson; (second row) Mrs. Exie Lee Hampton, a Visitor, Mrs. Nellie Gilchrist, Mrs. Ella K. Mays; (third row) Mrs. Mona Gordon, Mrs. Myrtle Cook, Mrs. Ineze C. Caston (Organizer-director), Mrs. Eugenia Kennedy; (back row) Mrs. Ora Lee Scott, Mrs. Corrine Jones, Mrs. Rosselle Fernandez, Mrs. Mary L. Johnson (Hostess), Mrs. Lillie Woods, Mrs. Victoria Satchell, (inset) General S. Johnson (Host).

In the mid and late 40's the home of the Johnsons was a "becca." The brilliant wedding of Dr. and Mrs. Herman F. (Dorothy Redd) on December 12, 1948 was solemnized at the Johnson home, with her father, Rev. Ernest S. Redd, officiating. There were five-hundred guests. The Trinity Usher Board, under the Presidency of Mr. James Sterling, had several "Teas" at the home, which were a financial success, and augmented the Church Building Fund.
