Annual Teachers Association

The Colored Teachers State Association will hold its annual session at Fort Worth, November 24-26. It is desired that as large a delegation of members from here attend as possible. Pay your membership fee of $1.75 to Professor G. W. Reeves, our official representative here.

ENROLMENT:

The low enrolment this year is attributable to two causes: Viz., (a) Unemployment of Negroes in cities, and (b) distressful agricultural conditions. In the past we have had a heavy enrolment from the rural sections of Texas. Now that the bottom has dropped out of the prices of agricultural commodities students drawn from these sections consequently have no means of raising sufficient money to enter colleges this year. It is to be noted that the present enrolment comes very largely from cities where there are more or less steady payrolls.

DALLAS NEWS EDITORIAL CLIPPING:

"If every white man were a gentleman, every black man would respond in kind. We have got to get it out of our heads that the Negro must do all the co-operating. It comes for both sides of the color line."

Meeting at the usual time and place.

Yours truly,
W. R. Banks
