TODAY'S GAME — Southern University of Baton Rouge, Louisiana will be seeking to play the role of "Spoilers" in today's Southwestern Conference battle with Prairie View A. & M.

All the Panthers need for their second straight Conference title and the undisputed National (Negro College) Championship is a victory over Southern today. Prairie View is 8-0 for the season, compared with the Jaguars 2-4 record. Southern's victory over high-ranked Florida A&M last Saturday has placed today's game in an entirely different perspective.

As in almost every year, this final battle between PV and Southern will decide the SW Conference title.
