A. RETIREMENT -

The Attorney General has ruled that all salary perquisites - such as board, room, house, etc - furnished an employee is a part of his salary. If an employee is hired for a hundred dollars a month, and his quarters are furnished, said quarters must be given a reasonable appraisal in terms of money and the same is subject to 5% deduction. Example:

John Jones has a salary of $100 and his house rent is appraised as $15 a month; said Jones pays 5% of $115 or $5.75 to retirement instead of $5. Other perquisites are handled in a similar manner.

C. THE SUNBEAM -

I came from Dallas to Houston recently on the New Stream Line - "THE SUNBEAM". I have ridden trains for 38 years and I am convinced that this is one of the finest trains on wheels today. It is unique and perfect in its construction and faultless in its accommodations and conveniences. The courtesy of the officials and employees is charming. There is absolutely no difference in the accommodations provided for Negroes.

I want to see, before this New Year gets very old, a great many of our employees here at Prairie View make an "Appreciation Trip" on this WONDER TRAIN. It will be an experience that you will not soon forget. Let us work up a party to make this appreciation trip. What about it?
