TONIGHT'S GAME

By Joe Booker

It's that time again. The Prairie View Panthers and Texas Southern Tigers are at it again. The two will be vying for the Texas Cup. It has been a long time since a Panther has enjoyed the luxury of the Cup . . . seven years, to be exact.

This is the 29th meeting between these two Southwestern Athletic Conference rivals. Texas Southern still trails 15-13, but the Tigers are fastly approaching the Panthers, having won the past seven years. Last year TSU won 41-14.

Despite the two teams records, TSU 5-4 and PVU 0-9, the rival and bitter grudge between the two schools are still there. Old PV grads would like nothing better than see the Panthers take the Tigers by the tail and stop the seven-year-drought.

Panther head coach Hoover Wright says he doesn't have any outstanding players, but if Wright wanted to brag a little bit, he could mention that the Panthers have the best punter in the nation in sophomore Eddie Riley, who barefoots them at a 46.4 rate per game.

If the Panthers are to upend the Tigers domination they must stop the Tigers quarterback Garland Montgomery, who is among the SWAC leaders in passing.

SOUTHWESTERN CONFERENCE (SWAC)

BRIEF HISTORY

The Southwestern Athletic Conference had its beginning as an alliance of small Texas schools in the early twenties. By mutual agreement, representatives from Jarvis, Texas College, Bishop, Prairie View and Paul Quinn met for preliminary consideration of a series of recommendations in 1921. They later acted upon the recommendations, resulting in the formal organization of the SWAC.

The function of the conference, as stated at the time, was to legislate the management and control of all intercollegiate athletics of the schools represented. With the exception of Prairie View charter membership was composed exclusively of church affiliated schools.

Later, Langston (Okla), Arkansas AM&N and Southern University were added by election. They were followed by Grambling, Alcorn A&M and Jackson State in the late fifties.

Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, the only church affiliated school holding membership in the league, dropped out in mid-summer of 1969 and was replaced by Mississippi Valley State, Itta Bena.

Today, the SWAC ranks as one of the nation's strongest small-college leagues. Conference teams have won national championships in basketball, baseball and track. The SWAC also ranks as one of the most prolific producers of professional football players, with Grambling placing next to Notre Dame in the number of active players.
