GREETINGS FROM

THE PRESIDENT PRAIRIE VIEW A&M UNIVERSITY

It is a pleasure for me to extend greetings and welcome to alumni, ex-students and friends on this very special occasion of our 1973 Homecoming. This year's activities will cover a period of an entire week, including many exciting events of broad interest to all.

We extend a special welcome to the team members, coaches and followers from Texas Lutheran College, a friendly neighbor and a very worthy opponent for this occasion. occasion.

We hope that all of you will have a most enjoyable visit to the campus and that you will plan now to come and visit us again soon.

Best wishes.

TODAY'S GAME

By Joe Booker, PV Sports Director

A demanding schedule that includes Jackson State, Southern and Grambling, has turned the heat on early for the Prairie View Panthers.

Even though the Panthers stand pat with a 0-3 record, it's not likely that they will fall flat on their face. In fact, observers are of the opinion that they will step up the time schedule and finish the season with a respectable record.

Today's game that matches the Panthers against the Texas Lutheran Bulldogs, is a battle of the defenses. Both clubs boast a fearless defense.

However, on the other hand, both clubs have an offensive threat. Last week against Grambling the Panthers freshman quarterback Lonnie Parker raised a few eyebrows and started a few barber shop agruments after passing for 135 yards against Grambling. John Moore, the Panthers All American flanker caught 4 passes for 116 yards, including a 74-yard bomb from Parker.

In the offensive line the Panthers boast all SWAC center Ernest Jones, along with Ellis Caple, Tyrone Harland, Jessie Simon, Willie Davis and Aaron Brown.

Texas Lutheran, who brings a 2-2 record into the contest, places a lot of faith in running back David Wehmeyer, who has 307 yards to his credit. Quarterback Galon Tucker passed for 2 touchdowns to end Bruce Dickey for 34 and 45 yards.

SOUTHWESTERN (SWAC)

BRIEF HISTORY

The Southwestern Athletic Conference had its beginning as an alliance of small Texas schools in the early twenties. By mutual agreement, representatives from Jarvis, Texas College, Bishop, Prairie View and Paul Quinn met for preliminary consideration of a series of recommendations in 1921. They later acted upon the recommendations, resulting in the formal organization of the SWAC.

The function of the conference, as stated at the time, was to legislate the management and control of all intercollegiate athletics of the schools represented. With the exception of Prairie View charter membership was composed exclusively of church affiliated schools.

Later, Langston (Okla), Arkansas AM&N and Southern University were added by election. They were followed by Grambling, Alcorn A&M and Jackson State in the late fifties.

Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, the only church affiliated school holding membership in the league, dropped out in mid-summer of 1969 and was replaced by Mississippi Valley State, Itta Bena.

Today, the SWAC ranks as one of the nation's strongest small-college leagues. Conference teams have won national championships in basketball, baseball and track. The SWAC also ranks as one of the most prolific producers of professional football players, with Grambling placing next to Notre Dame in the number of active players.
