JEPPESEN STADIUM — HOUSTON, TEXAS

TONIGHT'S GAME is a major Southwestern Conference battle between two arch rivals in all intercollegiate competition — the Panthers of PV and the Tigers of TSU. Both are state-supported institutions in Texas.

Prairie View carries the edge in this contest, having won three consecutive victories — including a most important 22-14 win over Grambling College last week... Texas Southern is 1-1 on the season and hopes to improve it's record in tonight's performance.

Past records, statistics, and various predictions are usually laid aside when these two teams meet. Tonight's game may be another such event, but we must wait and see.

DR. S. M. NABRIT
President
Texas Southern University

Greetings:

It is always a pleasure for me to extend greetings to the countless number of friends of Prairie View and Texas Southern during this annual athletic event between the two schools.

The friendly rivalry between our sister state institutions of higher learning is healthy and tends to promote excellence of performance in all of our related activities. Together we have produced some of the best athletic teams in the nation.

I hope that you will have an enjoyable evening, and may the best team win.

E. B. EVANS, President
Prairie View A&M College

Each year we meet in our traditional football contest — each with a desire to win — each hoping that next year it will be the stronger. But each year we both win a better relationship for the two sister institutions in the system of Public Higher Education in Texas.

Welcome.
