BISHOP COLLEGE TIGERS

Saturday, October 10, 1981

Forrester Field

Cornelius Cooper, Prairie View's football coach and James Jones, Bishop College's football coach, have some things in common they may not talk about Saturday night.

Both won outstanding honors while playing in the offensive lines for their alma maters. And both are now coaching their respective alma maters. And both are looking up with their football teams this weekend.

Cooper was an all conference offensive tackle for Prairie View during the early 1960s and was named head coach of the Panthers after spending a short stint as an assistant in Florida and as an assistant at Prairie View.

Jones was an all district selection and All American pick while playing offensive guard for Bishop College in the late 1960s and after spending some time as head coach at high schools in the Dallas area was named head coach at Bishop College three years ago.

Both are looking upward, with this year's football teams. Cooper is looking upward after losing four games to four of the nation's toughest — Southwest Texas, Jackson, Southern and Grambling.

Jones is looking upward, with a 4-1 record. He's looking toward a possible post-season playoff berth for his high flying Tigers. "If Prairie View doesn't stop us I don't see anybody else on our schedule who should stop us from getting a playoff berth," Jones proudly boasts. And if the Tigers keep flying as high as they have been the Tigers could gain enough attention from the pollsters and land a playoff spot.

The trenches, where both coaches toiled during their playing days, is where "the game is won" says Cooper. It's also where the two teams have their strength. For Prairie View it's senior defensive tackle Milton Hall, from Eutaw, Ala., junior offensive tackle Jesse Nelson, center Ralph Williams, senior offensive tackle Dale Clark among others.

OPERATION SUCCESS

Operation Success is based on the philosophy that each student admitted to Prairie View A&M University has the potential to succeed.

The complete education and experiences of the student at Prairie View A&M University are designed and implemented to help them keep the status to which they were born, namely: THEY WERE BORN TO WIN!!! THEY WERE BORN TO SUCCEED!!!

The University recognizes that many students, who are admitted, may have academic, social, cultural, vocational, economic or personal handicaps.

There are no students admitted, however, with handicaps which cannot be corrected so that the student can achieve success. The students do have the potential to succeed.

Operation Success is based upon the philosophy that the University will organize its human and material resources into such systems that will maximize the academic, personal-social, cultural and career awareness and vocational attainment of each student enrolled.

Operation Success is also based upon the philosophy that it is important for the student to enroll at the University, but it is even more important that he or she graduates from the University with a variety of new experiences and high level achievements.

DR. HARRY S. WRIGHT

DR. WRIGHT SPEAKS

To alumni and friends of our two great institutions, PRAIRIE VIEW A&M UNIVERSITY AND BISHOP COLLEGE, we say "Greetings!" It is our earnest desire that the gridiron encounter between our schools will continue to symbolize the fine relationship that exists between our educational communities as we seek to build the foundations of "the better life" — not only providing facts about life, but even more importantly, a faith through which those facts can be most purposefully utilized.

"Lord, be kind to me . . . Your ocean is so wide . . . and my boat is so small . . . Lord, be kind to me!"

With this simple prayer, Dr. Harry S. Wright, dean of the chapel at Bishop College for twelve years, began his task as the interim chief executive officer of Bishop College. Presented to the campus family by Trustee Chairman Dr. J. K. Haynes of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, in the College Chapel, the 48-year old Wright pledged "a new attitude of confidence. Let us be confident in ourselves . . . We can do it . . . GOD is able!"

Such was the emotional beginning of a new era at Bishop College. Brought through difficult times in the past, facing accumulated problems of fiscal instability and government investigation, climaxed by indictment of key officials, the institution — in the words of Trustee Chairman Haynes — is entering a new era and manifesting a "new sense of togetherness." He said, "We shall no longer speak of mere 'survival,' for REVIVAL is on its way!"

CHEVY CAVALIER THE ESCAPE HATCH

Escape to where you long to be.

Here's the kind of engineering designed to take you miles away from the middle of the road. The 1982 Cavalier Hatchback. A brand-new car that owes its creation to innovation. Not imitation.

Escape with the goods.

Reclining front seats, power brakes, side and rear window defoggers and a remote hatch release (quite a remote feature on ordinary hatchbacks) combine with 38 other standard features to make the '82 Cavalier the most complete new car we've ever introduced.

On the technical side, innovations in front-wheel drive, aerodynamic design and operating efficiency help add up to 43 Est. Highway/26 EPA Est. MPG.* And engine buffs will be interested to know Cavalier's standard 1.8 Liter, 4-cylinder engine actually delivers more horsepower per liter than some highly regarded V8s.

Plan your escape now.

Your Chevy dealer can help put your escape plan in motion, starting with a test drive. Get inside. Drive it around the block. Then all that's left to do is to decide whether you want to buy or lease a new 1982 Cavalier. Whichever you choose, one thing's for sure:

You won't have any trouble at all adjusting to your new freedom.

*Use estimated MPG for comparisons. Your mileage may differ depending on speed, distance, weather. Actual highway mileage lower. Chevrolets are equipped with GM-built engines produced by various divisions. See your dealer for details.

Stay ahead of the game...

About the Head Coach

James L. Jones is in his third year as head football coach at Bishop College. Among the honors that Jones earned while playing at Bishop were, NAIA All District 8 offensive guard and tackle 1968-69, All Texas Tackle for 1968-69 by The Dallas Morning News. He was offensive lineman of the year in 1969 at Bishop and was also Captain of the football team.

Jones held coaching jobs at Lincoln High School, W. H. Adamson High School and Lancaster High School before taking the top spot at Bishop in 1978.

PRE-SEASON OUTLOOK:

The Tigers expect to be better in 1981 and coach James Jones has 35 lettermen and 17 starters to help him improve on last year's 5-5 record. Actually 5-5 was a letdown for Jones' second year, since he finished with a 6-3 record his first year at the helm and 5-5 last year. But with the experience he proudly boasts "watch out for the Tigers this year!" The offense, boasts eight starters but it is defense, with nine starters, where the Tigers are strongest. Leading returnees are defensive tackle Carleton Nelson, a 225-pound junior; Dennis DeV Vaughn, a 170-pound junior defensive back and sophomore linebacker Michael Henderson, a 190-pounder.

College Nicknames

It's All in a Name

Ever wonder which nickname is the most popular in college football? Of course you have. The winner—by a wide margin—is Tigers. There are 27 NCAA football teams with that nickname—ranging from Auburn to Wittenberg.

You probably guessed that one, but can you name No. 2? It's the Bears, 17-16 over the Bulldogs. Then come the Eagles (13), Wildcats (11) and Indians (9).

Twenty-one other nicknames are listed by at least five teams—the Cardinals, Rams and Panthers eight each; Huskies, Pioneers, Raiders and Vikings seven each; Aggies, Bisons, Bobcats, Devils, Lions, Scots and Yellow Jackets six each; and Broncos, Colonels, Crusaders, Dutchmen, Knights, Spartans and Warriors five each.

The funniest or most unusual? That's strictly in the eye of the beholder—if you're a fan of that team it probably isn't either funny or unusual to you. You can do the picking in this category—and answer the irate fan letters.

If you're looking to tune up your voice and diction, though, the P's provide precise practice — Pacers-Paladins-Peacocks-Penguins-Pioneers-Pipers-Pirates - Plainsmen - Poets - Presidents-Prof's-Pumas-Purple Aces. Try those at high speed.

How many different nicknames are there among the country's 487 NCAA football teams? That's a good question, and there's no perfect answer. By our system, probably not a bit better than yours, there are 223, counting as one each those with slight variations (Hurricane singular and plural, Wolfpack one word and two and Bison-Bisons). So many different nicknames start with "Fighting," "Golden" and various other words that we decided to list them under the second part of the name, as in Bears (Golden), Irish (Fighting), Tigers (Blue), Devils (Red), Eagles (Bald) and so on.

But it would never do to list the Ragin' Cajuns of Southwestern Louisiana as the "Cajuns (Ragin')," and the one and only Battling Bishops of Ohio Wesleyan as the "Bishops (Battling)"—would it? Of course not. And in case you're wondering why the Sun Devils of Arizona State aren't listed with the various other Devils, well, the Sun Devils are just too hot (102 in the shade is a cool day there).

ALCORN STATE UNIVERSITY (Lorman, Miss.)

HEAD COACH: Marino Casem (18th season 106-51-8 at Alcorn, 108-60-8 overall).

Coach Marino Casem has the task of rebuilding the Brave defense. It's tough with the likes of All American end Wilarthur Jackson, All Conference safety Leslie Frazier and linebacker Dennis Campbell missing. Six starters return on that side giving Casem a good building block for starters with defensive back Mark Harper the leader of the bunch. "Offensively, we've got to settle down our passing game and establish our pass as a genuine threat," Casem said. With that in mind Brave recruiters labled the quarterback position the top priority with defensive backs and linemen coming next. And thus, rookie players may play a big part in the Brave success this season. Quarterback then is listed by Casem as his major weakness as well as defensive backs and the line. "Pure passing" is lacking among the returnees and may indeed be the biggest problem. A major strength listed is the superb corps of sparkling running backs. Gregory Jones gained 1,000 yards as a sophomore and was named Sheridan Black Network All American and All Conference. He is tabbed the most sensational running back since Jack "The Ripper" Spinks, now an assistant at Alcorn. When Jones is not carrying the ball, ample yardage still can be generated by either Darnell Toy (252 yards on 76 carries and five touchdowns) or Ray Vaughn (152 yards on 29 carries and one touchdown). Depth among the receivers is also an asset as in the kicking game.

GRAMBLING STATE UNIVERSITY (Grambling, LA)

HEAD COACH: Eddie Robinson (40th season, 291-92-12).

Grambling experiences another of its usual outstanding seasons in 1980, winning 10 of 11 regular season games, sharing a part of the SWAC crown, participating in the NCAA 1-AA playoffs and winning the Black National Championship. The upcoming season is expected to be just as productive even though Grambling lost 23 lettermen and has but 10 returning starters. Thomas Ezell is expected to step in at quarterback and take over where Mike Williams left off. He'll have two outstanding receivers in Tru-maine Johnson (41 catches for 918 yards and 13 touchdowns) and Jerry Gordon (42 catches for 748 yards and 11 scores). The defense will have two of the nation's biggest in 6-11, 325-pounder James Polk along with 6-8 Robert Smith. The secondary is in a rebuilding phase but Mike Haynes is a steady player and has all the tools to be great. Earnest Walker is expected to fill Robert Parham's shoes with challenges from senior Jerry Elzy and rookie Boykins Hunter. The tailbacks are strong with senior Kenneth Jackson (362 yards) and James Robinson (4.3 speed). McKary Jackson is a firm anchor at center and his backups are just as solid, both weighing in at 256 — junior Jessie Bankhead and sophomore Robert Jackson.

JACKSON STATE UNIVERSITY (Jackson, Miss.)

HEAD COACH: W. C. Gordon, (5th year, 35-12).

The upcoming season looks super promising for Jackson State with only six starters gone from a championship team. Offensively the Tigers return the entire starting backfield with quarterback Keith Taylor, fullback Alvin Flowers and running backs Larry Cowan and Otis Brown. Those two finished the season fifth and sixth in the conference with Flowers seventh and Taylor ninth in rushing. Cowan had 502 yards in nine games while Brown had 522 in 11. Taylor also passed for 707 yards. Anchoring the offensive line will be Mike Fields and Carl Roberts, both outstanding All Star candidates. Fields has been a starter the past two seasons after seeing spot duty his freshman year. Roberts has quickness. Robert Johnson, a sensational sophomore, and Derek McClannahan head up a strong corps of defensive backs.

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY (Itta Bena, Miss.)

HEAD COACH: Archie Cooley (2nd year, 5-5).

Coach Archie Cooley is faced with a year of rebuilding. Cooley will begin his second year with only 18 veterans. Of this number 12 are starters. Replacements will have to be found for quarterback Lloyd Farmer, wide receiver Billy Brown, All Conference receiver Wally Wright and running backs Robert Powell and Steve Jackson. "We're going to be a very young team at the skill positions," said Cooley. Maurice Johnson, the leading candidate for the quarterback spot, will have to battle freshman Dwayne Harris. Defensively, the teams strength is in the defensive line. Despite the return of seven starters Cooley will have to fashion a new secondary. Shifts are evident and with All Conference punter Otis Culliver and place kicker Stanley Jones and Reginald Hawthorne returning, things will not be a rose garden but won't be too thorny either. The big problem on defense will be finding replacements for defensive backs Larry Harmon and Hubert Owens and linebacker Dexter Hood. Although the Delta Devils are quite young this year, Cooley is optimistic about matching last year's record and possibly finishing higher in the conference.

PRAIRIE VIEW A&M UNIVERSITY (Prairie View, TX)

HEAD COACH: Cornelius Cooper (2nd year, 2-8).

The Panthers will be young but experienced and should improve with each game, says coach Cornelius Cooper. "We started improving and building up momentum in the middle of last season and it continued with each game and even through spring practice. We'll be working on improving with each game we play this year, too," Cooper said. Cooper will have 25 lettermen, including 17 starters to open his second season at the helm. Included in that are nine starters on offense and eight on defense. The bright spot is the secondary where starters Willie Thomas, James Hayes and John White return. They'll be bolstered by senior Robert Alexander, who missed last year with grade problems and sophomore Gerald Barnett, who missed last season with a knee injury. Both were starters two years ago. Another bright spot is the receiving corps headed by Tommie Dunson, the teams leading receiver for the past two seasons and a second team All Conference choice two years ago. An added plus is the return of Tracy Jones, who led the team in receptions three years ago, then missed the last two seasons because of a knee injury. "He hasn't lost anything — speed, ability to get open, agility, quickness or good hands," Cooper said.

SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY (Baton Rouge, LA)

HEAD COACH: Otis Washington (1st year).

First year coach Otis Washington seems to be stealing a page out of the coaching philosophy book of the late Vince Lombardi. Washington, like Lombardi vows that "the objective of the game is to win — fairly, squarely, decently, by the rules — but to win!" And with that Washington, after a super successful high school career at St. Augustine High (113-17-1) and one year as an assistant at LSU, jumps into one of the best football conferences in the country. "The SWAC is one of the top conferences in the country as evidenced by the number of players from SWAC in the NFL and I feel that coming into the conference, we will be involved with and pitted against some of the best coach minds in the country," he said. Johnny Hankerson is the top running back candidate and senior Jonathon Rochon is another who looked good in spring training. Washington labels center as one of the Jaguars critical positions. Back-up center Anthony Wilson returns but there is little depth after Wilson. Jerrell Franklin is the top line returner and Washington feels Franklin should repeat as All Conference this time around. Al Harris is the big player on defense along with Jeff Lendo while Tyrone Jones, at linebacker, caught Washington's eye during spring drill.

TEXAS SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY (Houston, TX)

HEAD COACH: Joe Redmond (1st year at TSU, spent past two seasons at Central State in Wilberforce, OH).

A new era begins in Texas Southern University football when Joseph Redmond marches the Tigers onto the playing field in September. When Redmond, who spent the last two seasons at Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio, started spring practice with the Tigers he told the aspirants: "We are looking for the best 22 players we can find to play — there will be a rebirth of the Tigers in 1981!" His major problem will be on offense — the selection of a Number 1 quarterback. He has three who played quite a bit last season in Jackie Hicks, Lance Courville and Anthony Johnson but at the end of spring practice Hicks had caught Redmond's eye. The Tigers have an outstanding crop of receivers in Carl Williams, Arthur Cox and Roosevelt Weeks. The biggest loss on offense was fullback Robert Thomas. Defensively it's a complete overhaul needed with only three returning starters, but old faces may be playing in new places and new faces may be playing where old faces were last year, says Redmond — "that will be the best 22 football players we have. They will be on the field somewhere!"

About the Southwestern Athletic Conference

Dr. E. B. Evans, J. E. Stamps and Aaron Day were Prairie View representatives on a Sunday morning in September of 1920 at the Old Oriental Hotel on San Felipe Street in Houston at the start of the Southwestern Athletic Conference. Other colleges present were Bishop, Wiley, Samuel Houston and Paul Quinn. Before the meeting was adjourned the Southwestern Athletic Conference was brought into existence.

The purpose at that time was to coordinate the Inter-collegiate Athletic Activities of the five colleges. Football and baseball were the only sports involved at that time.

In 1922 Texas College joined the conference and basketball was recognized as an official sport.

The conference was a success from the very beginning because coaches, administrative officers and students worked together unselfishly and gave freely of their time and talent in order that it would grow and prosper, reported Dr. Evans.

As time moved on track, tennis and golf were added as conference sports giving the league a well-rounded program.

Langston, Southern and Arkansas AM&N (now Arkansas-Pine Bluff) joined the league in the 1930s.

Bishop, Samuel Houston and Paul Quinn dropped out for economic reasons and were replaced by Texas Southern in 1956, Jackson State in 1958 and Grambling in 1959. Langston dropped out of the conference to join the Oklahoma Collegiate Conference in 1957.

Texas College discontinued football after the 1960 season and was replaced by Alcorn A&M. Wiley dropped out of the conference in 1967 and Mississippi Valley was the replacement. Arkansas-Pine Bluff dropped out in 1970 leaving the league as it now stands with seven members.

The Southwestern Athletic Conference ranks as one of the top conferences in the nation with national championships won by member schools in baseball, basketball, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, and football. There have been a number of professional players produced by member schools in football, basketball and baseball.
