PRAIRIE VIEW A&M VS.

ARKANSAS A. M. & N.

FARRINGTON FIELD

OCTOBER 4, 1972

Ft. Worth, Texas

1:30 p.m.

TONIGHT'S GAME IS THE FIRST MEETING IN TWO YEARS between these two old friendly rivals from way back. Prairie View and Arkansas State played their first football game together in 1931, the year Arkansas joined the Southwestern Athletic Conference. The Panthers won 30 of the 35 contests that followed, but the rivalry evened up before the series closed in 1969.

The Lions are trying to duplicate or better their 1971 record of 7-2, while the Panthers are presently hungry for victory following four straight set-backs. The neutral Farrington Field in friendly Fort Worth (about equal distance for both teams) should provide an ideal climate for the renewed struggle, and may the best team win.

SOUTHWESTERN (SWAC)

BRIEF HISTORY

The Southwestern Athletic Conference had its beginning as an alliance of small Texas schools in the early twenties. By mutual agreement, representatives from Jarvis, Texas College, Bishop, Prairie View and Paul Quinn met for preliminary consideration of a series of recommendations in 1921. They later acted upon the recommendations, resulting in the formal organization of the SWAC.

The function of the conference, as stated at the time, was to legislate the management and control of all intercollegiate athletics of the schools represented. With the exception of Prairie View, charter membership was composed exclusively of church affiliated schools.

Later, Langston (Okla.), Arkansas AM&N and Southern University were added by election. They were followed by Grambling, Alcorn A&M and Jackson State in the late fifties.

Wiley College, Marshall, Texas, the only church affiliated school holding membership in the league, dropped out in mid-summer of 1969 and was replaced by Mississippi Valley State, Itta Bena.

Today, the SWAC ranks as one of the nation's strongest small-college leagues. Conference teams have won national championships in basketball, baseball and track. The SWAC also ranks as one of the most prolific producers of professional football players, with Grambling placing next to Notre Dame in the number of active players.
