Information:

- (a) Music for Next Workers' Meeting from Arts and Sciences Division
- (b) Authentic notice has come to my office that Miss Rosa B. Johnson, of the English Department, has completed all the requirements for her Master's Degree and it will be awarded her by the University of Southern California at the June Commencement. Congratulations, Miss Johnson.
- (c) There are now 31 people on our faculty who have completed all of the work for their Master's Degrees.

Your attention is called to the points that:

- (a) The present Legislature has reduced all salaries for the next fiscal year 25 per cent.
- (b) All those who plan to study this summer will please give me notice in writing not later than April 15.

Further Study:

This is to advise that on or by May 1, 1933, the Directors will furnish my office a complete program of those of their faculties who shall do additional study for the session of 1933-'34 to meet the requirements of this institution for its faculty members.

Finally,

"Ability uncontrolled by character is apt to do more harm than good. Without it, nothing but disaster is ahead. With it, the future is as bright as the promise of the dawn."

--Address: "Education in the Machine Age",
President Robert C. Clothier,
Rutgers University.
