III. RECENT CONFERENCES AT PRAIRIE VIEW COLLEGE

1. The State Conference for Negro Teachers of Vocational Agriculture on July 10, 11, and 12, was one of the best ever held here.
2. The Executive Cabinet of the Texas Commission on Inter-racial Co-operation held a meeting here July 10 and outlined a program for their November meeting which is designed to be of far-reaching significance to the Negroes of this state.

IV. RECENT PUBLICITY:

1. Those who have not read "FORMER SLAVE PLANTATION TRANSFORMED INTO COLLEGE FOR NEGRO YOUTH," appearing in the July 16 issue of the Houston Post, should read this article. It is a vivid and unbiased description of the growth and development of Prairie View College.
2. The comments to us from Alumni, friends, and prospective students indicate that the May issue of the Standard is favorable publicity far beyond our expectations.

V. BIRTHS:

We welcome to our campus Miss Anne Louise Jackson and Master S. H. Settler, Jr.

VI. DEATH:

We regret to announce the death of Mr. A. J. Wallace on July 17. He was associated with us in the Mechanic Arts Division for so many years.

VII. PRINCIPAL'S ABSENCE:

This is the fourth consecutive week our Principal has been away from the college. At our last Worker's Meeting he stated, "I leave with faith and satisfaction in knowing that each of you, my colleagues and students, will do your full duty." It is gratifying to state that you have more than lived up to the expectations of your Principal.

Sincerely yours,

E. B. Evans.
