REMEMBER

*Remember me when I am gone away,
Gone far away into the silent land;
When you can no more hold me by the hand,
Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay,
Remember me when no more, day by day,
You tell me of our future that you planned:
Only remember me; you understand.*

Order of Service

Presiding: Mrs. G. Maxine Moye ('58)

OPENING PRAYER

Reverend Richard D. Hayes ('76)

LET US PRAY:

Eternal God, we praise you for all these who have finished their course through the days of this life and now rest from their labor.

Especially do we thank you for those dear to us who have returned to you. In the quiet places of our souls, we now remember them, lifting them before you in love and thanksgiving.

Together we gather, as a family reunion, assembled as an Annual Convention, of Prairie View A&M University Alumni to honor with praise and thanksgiving, raising up in cherished memory fellow students who lived and dreamed and prayed to God. AMEN

ACTS OF PRAISE

* Canticle of Remembrance

Reverend Charles Lewter, Dean of Chapel - Prairie View A&M University

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God and no torment will ever touch them.
In the eyes of the foolish they seem to have died,
and their departure was thought to be an affliction,
and their going from us to be their destruction;
but they are at peace.
For though in our sight they were punished, their hope is full of immortality.

Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good,
because God tested them and found them worthy;
like gold in the furnace God tried them,
and like a sacrificial burnt offering God accepted them.
In the time of their visitation they will shine forth,
and will run like sparks through the stubble.
They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them for ever.
Those who trust in God will understand truth,
and the faithful will abide in love,
because grace and mercy are upon the elect,
and God watches over the holy ones.
