Dear Mr. Yancy:

We received your recent communication postmarked November 9, 1967. Enclosed was a sheet inquiring about our plans for 1968-69. There were no other contents. We did not receive from your office, a copy of the play off brackets; however, we were able to get one from another source.

Also, we are still unable to locate the Acceptance Cards for band, basketball and track. Please be kind enough to send us duplicate cards and the eligibility blanks for band and track. Unless we have eligibility blanks for band we shall be unable to properly report our enrollment fees.

Your courtesies and services are always appreciated.

Very truly yours,

C. W. Dawson, Principal
