Dear Mr. Yancy:

We are enclosing a report on the football game that was played on our campus Saturday night, December 2, 1967; also a check for $104.47 (7% of gross gate). We are only completing the form that applies. We agreed on a $800 guarantee with Wharton.

We won the game; therefore, we will play Hallsville next Saturday night, December 9, on our campus.

Please send us a few more financial report forms.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

I have noticed that on page 3 of the rules and regulations handbook sponsors of one-act plays are required to submit the name of their play on or before ~~December~~ December 1.

We, the sponsors of Scott's one act-plays, have not yet decided on the play we wish to use for our Interscholastic League presentation.

Presently, Scott has three Thespian Societies, each of which will present its play in a Play Festival and be judged by an impartial, qualified critic, whose selection will be the play to be presented at the Interscholastic League.

Our problem is that the plays we wish to enter as our presentation, Antigone, The House of Bernada Albert, and Dope are not listed on this year's list of approved plays, but have been listed in previous years by the University of Texas. Antigone, The House of Bernada Albert, and Dope have won state championships.

We wish to secure your permission to present one of these plays, which title we will submit at a later date. Too, we will submit a copy of each play for your consideration.

Cordially yours,

Dear Mr. Yancy:

There are some questions I need cleared up. They are:

- (1) Are there any special rules for girls basketball in this league?
- (2) What is the official length of quarters in girls games?
- (3) Is there any chance we can get a state play off for girl basketball?

I am of the opinion that girls should have the same opportunities as boys and that they are due as much consideration even if they have not always been so treated.

Your direct answer to the three questions above will be deeply appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Oliver:

I have your letter of December 5, 1967 requesting permission to present a play which is not listed in the Handbook for One-Act Play Directors published by the University of Texas Interscholastic League.

As I promised, your request or letter was presented to our State Executive Committee along with the Chairman of One-Act Plays. The opinion prevailed that we should adhere to Rule 2, Article A, Title Section, "All plays must be selected from the Approved List of Plays in Handbook for One-Act Play Directors."

I regret personally that we cannot grant your request at this time.
