A. FISCAL YEAR 1934-35

The Fiscal year 1934-35, comes to a close August 31.

This has been a most fruitful year.

The various activities sponsored by and held at Prairie View State College have brought to our Campus more than 9000 people.

The influence of Prairie View is being extended in a very definite manner into every nook and corner of Texas, lending color and helpful guidance and inspiration to every worthwhile movement and activity of the people.

Truly the campus of the institution is only limited by the boundary of Texas.

The noteworthy progress of this institution is due to the enthusiastic and sympathetic and intelligent co-operation of the Faculty, Students, Ex-students, Patrons and Friends.

B. STATEMENTS -

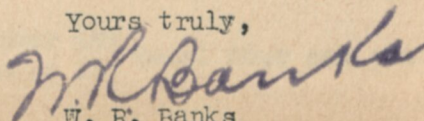

- (a) Training School for Adult Teachers August 2-31
- (b) Farmers Short Course August 12, 13 and 14
- (c) Vocational Agricultural Conference August 19-23
- (d) All teachers who are away studying this summer report progress and hard work.
- (e) Miss Joanna Perry will go to Mexico with the Columbia University Tours.
- (f) Have you seen the beautiful and well kept lawns on the South-east side of the Campus?
- (g) All members of the faculty for 1935-36 will be available for duty on the Campus on or by September 10.

It makes me exceedingly happy to give to you, My Faithful Colleagues, the honor and praise for the successful out come of this Fiscal Year, 1934-35.

AND FINALLY

Those who sow unselfishly and work diligently, reap greater and more worthwhile rewards than those who are "self-seekers" and "credit hunters"

Yours truly,

W. R. Banks
Principal

P. S. The August meeting will be held Tuesday evening, July 30, at 7:30, in the College Auditorium.
