C H R I S T M A S

They called his name, EMMANUEL- a name
Cried out by countless millions in all lands;
A name that is written on men's hearts like fland,
And lettered there by the heavenly Father's hands.
"EMMANUEL, GOD with us." AH, to know
The blest assurance of his presence near!
That day or night, wherever we may go
We may tread the roughened roadways without fear.

Jesus, the Christ, the Savior, Prince of Peace
His many names ring out like some struck bell.
They echo on our hearts and do not cease,
And ever the precious name, EMMANUEL,
Sounds on the air to make its meaning known:
God with us, we need never walk alone.-----

THE PRAIRIE VIEW BOWL

The 34th Annual Prairie View Bowl is scheduled on January 1 in Houston's Jeppesen Stadium (Scott and Wheeler Streets). An opponent for the Panthers has not been selected at this time, but an announcement to this effect is expected soon. The Athletic Council invites your cooperation and participation in this major college event.

Candidates for graduation in 1961-62 are encouraged to apply NOW for Teaching Certificates if they will be eligible to receive them on graduation in January or May. Applications should be made immediately with the Transcript Section of the Registrar's Office.

Smart candidates are also executing application for Employment Forms with the Placement Office, 2nd Floor, Old Agric. Bldg., Mr. O. J. Thomas's Office.
