N H A & N F A Convention of Texas. YOUR WEEK

Welcome! N H A and N F A of Texas
H J Bouchie, in charge.

For some years now I have been so fortunate as to see an assemblage of young students, products of our high schools of Texas, meet in a convention of the New Homemakers and New Farmers of America of Texas. With them they bring the exuberance of youth, and a large measure of vibrant, glowing health which is lacking in those of us who missed the kind of individual growth and development of physical, social, and moral qualities that is embodied in the "Creed" of these young people.

Saturday April 1, 1950

It is the lot of these young people, untouched by so much of the bitterness and hatred of our world, who, following the precepts of their "Creed" - belief in kindness and truth, beauty in spirit, harmony and love in the home - will do much to bring justice for all in our nation and peace to the world.

Because you are young, and because of the greatness which can be yours, we salute you, members of the N H A and N F A!
..... Vivian E. Roy, Class '50
