YOUR WEEK

"All ordinary violence produces its own limitations, for it calls forth an answering violence which sooner or later becomes its equal or superior. But kindness works simply and perseveringly; it produces no strained relations which prejudice its working; strained relations which already exist it relaxes. Mistrust and misunderstanding it puts to flight, and it strengthens itself by calling forth answering kindness. Hence it is the furthestreaching and the most effective of all forces.

"All the kindness which a man puts out into the world works on the heart and the thoughts of mankind, but we are so foolishly indifferent that we are never in earnest in the matter of kindness. We want to topole a great load over, and yet will not avail ourselves of a lever which would multiply our power a hundred-fold.

"There is an unmeasured depth of truth in that strange saying of Jesus: "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth" (St. Matt. v, 5)."
