FOREWORD

Education and the dignity of man offer a compelling challenge to honor students and honor societies. Honor Societies in American Colleges and Universities exist primarily to recognize the attainment of scholarship of a superior quality—of academic excellence. They recognize the development of leadership qualities, character and good campus and community citizenship; they encourage in their members and in others the production of superior scholarship and leadership.

Today, in a world dominated by social change, our future will emerge from new ideas, new hopes, and new aspirations based upon the virtues of integrity, character, compassion, academic excellence . . . virtues that are relevant today and worth pursuing; virtues that remain essential foundations for any civilization and for any worthwhile dream . . . the dream that can transform crises into opportunity and opportunity into service in the behalf of a better world for all mankind.

ALMA MATER — "Dear Prairie View"

Dear Prairie View, our song to thee we raise,
In gratitude we sing our hymn of praise,
For mem'ries dear, for friends and recollections,
For lessons learned while here we've lived with thee.
For these we pledge our hearts full of devotion,
To serve thee now, and through eternity.

As days go by, our hearts will not grow cold,
We'll love thy purple royal and thy gold,
We'll through our lives exemplify thy teachings,
We'll always strive a blessing to be.
Thy children we our love and pride confessing,
We'll love thee now, and through eternity.

Words by O. Anderson Fuller
