FOREWORD

The achievements of individual members of any honor society give noteworthy prestige to that society. Honor societies exist primarily to recognize the attainment of scholarship of a superior quality, and the development of leadership qualities, character and good campus citizenship. It should be the desire of all honor societies to make this recognition a thing to be coveted and to encourage the production of superior leadership both on campus and after graduation from college. A society which is known and admired outside of the college world as well as on the campus may be regarded as having achieved maturity and success.

ALMA MATER — "Dear Prairie View"

Dear Prairie View, our song to thee we raise,
In gratitude we sing our hymn of praise,
For mem'ries dear, for friends and recollections,
For lessons learned while here we've lived with thee.
For these we pledge our hearts full of devotion,
To serve thee now, and through eternity.

As days go by, our hearts will not grow cold,
We'll love thy purple royal and thy gold,
We'll through our lives exemplify thy teachings,
We'll always strive a blessing to be.
Thy children we our love and pride confessing,
We'll love thee now, and through eternity.

Words by O. Anderson Fuller
