President Evans Receives Appointment

Another honor was paid to President E. B. Evans recently in his appointment to the Committee on Inter-Racial Relationship by the National Executive Board, Boy Scouts of America.

Already a holder of the Silver Beaver and the Silver Antelope, Scouting's highest awards for service, Dr. Evans received unanimous approval of the Scouting Board for this important National position. He was notified of the appointment by Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout executive, New York National headquarters.

This new post of honor follows closely the acceptance of the President into the American Veterinary Medical Association, a recognition long denied Negro members of the profession.

Choir Scores In "The Messiah"

The 100-voice college choir, under the directorship of Dr. Rudolph Von Charlton, Head of the Department of Music, gave its splendid rendition of the Messiah on the 16th at the Sunday evening Vesper Hour.

The soloists that were featured with the choir were Bessie Gooden, and Mae Helen Wilson, sopranos; Mary Jo Hall, alto; Julius Langston, tenor, and Carl Tigner, baritone. The solos along with the choruses by the choir were beautifully done and everyone in the audience couldn't help but be-touched and feel the true Christmas spirit in their hearts.

The Messiah is one of the favorite of cantatas and especially during this season of the year. Dr. Von Charlton, Mr. Iones and members of the college choir and band should be complimented greatly for their superb per-

New Headquarters Established for Phillis Wheatley Foundation

A release from the National Phillis Wheatley Foundation announced the dedication of their National Headquarters for Sunday, December 16, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Jane E. Hunter, President of this outstanding citizenship organization, is making a plea for participation by girls and young women in its many services. The Foundation aims, among other things, to provide scholarships in vocational education. It is currently sponsoring a national play-writing contest.

Incorporated in 1947, the Foundation is named for Phillis Wheatley, America's first Negro poet. The new national headquarters at 2163 East 46th Street, Cleveland, Ohio, will include a completely redecorated building, the main floor of which has been planned for business, religious purposes, and lectures on intelligent participation in civic affairs.

The Foundation is planning now for its jubilee celebration in 1954 for the 200th anniversary of the birth of Phillis Wheatley.

O. J. THOMAS Heads League.

Full-Time League Director Named

A memorandum from President E. B. Evans' office dated November 25 announced the appointment of O. J. Thomas as State Director of the Interscholastic League of Colored Schools. "Mr. Thomas has been associated with the League programs for many vears, and now devoting full-time to its directorship; he is in a better position to render to this activity the service it deserves," Dr. Evans stated.

The announcement, addressed to member schools and officials, and appearing in a recent issue of the League Reporter also reaffirmed the purposes of the League which had its beginning at Prairie View and has operated for the past thirty years with limited staff and facilities.

The new director has served the league in various capacities almost as long as its existence. Twenty odd years ago he served as county and district director and later as chairman of the State Rules Committee and Chairman of the state meet Committee. For the past two years he has held the post as state director but which was a part-time position in addition to his regular employment at

Aside from Mr. Thomas' activities with the league he has served as instructor at Texas College, Principal of the School at Cameron, Texas, which was named in his honor the O. J. Thomas High School and recently as State Itinerant Teacher Trainer and State Adviser of New Farmers of America in Agricultural Education. Offices of honor held include: President of the Colored Teachers Association of Texas: First Vice President of American Teachers Association, both of which he is a life member and President of Prairie View Alumni Association. ## Faculty Members Honored At Annual Banquet

In one of their rare full-dress occasions, members of the college staff, almost to the last man, made the annual trek to the beautifully decorated cafeteria on the evening of December 11; ate $2.00 steaks; relaxed in unaccustomed luxury; and had the time of their lives in what is called the Annual Faculty Banquet.

Good fellowship, such as is seldom seen in the hustle-bustle of every day class and committee assignments, was the keynote of the swanky affair. Everybody was in good spirits, and a lot of pride and admiration was exhibited especially when the group paid homage to two old-timers who had passed the 25 year notch in their services to the college.

W. R. Banks, who moved into full retirement last August 31 after having served as the institution's head for his quarter century period, was honored as was A. G. Cleaver, instructor in broom and mattress making, who received his diploma from Prairie View in 1911 and has made good brooms and mattresses here for Texas people ever since, D. S. ## Arkansas State Selected For P. V. Bowl Classic

AG Education Dept. Has New Member

John R. Powell, has been recently appointed to the position of Itinerant in Agricultur-Education. He replaces Mr. O. J Thomas in this position as Mr. Thomas has been moved into the directorship of the state interscholastic league

A graduate of JOHN R. POWELL Prairie View,

Mr. Powell comes directly from the position as teacher of Agriculture at Sam Houston High School, Huntsville, where he has directed an outstanding program in vocational agriculture. One of his students has served as vice president of the National NFA organization and a number of them have been winners in state and national contests. Mr. Powell has also been active in civic improvement activities in the Huntsville area.

The new teacher-trainer is employed jointly by the college and the Texas Education Agency. With headquarters at Prairie View in the department of Agricultural Education, he will work directly with Dr. E. M. Norris in training Ag teachers and rendering in-service assistance to teachers over the state.

The Arkansas A. M. & N. College Lions of Pine Bluff, 4th place winners in the Southwestern Conference, will be the guest of the College in the 24th annual playing of the Prairie View Bowl on New Year Day, 1952.

Entering the classic with their first conference championship in eleven years, the Panthers extended an invitation to all the leading Negro College elevens in the Nation, but they had to return to their own league, as was on last year, to find a willing opponent for this past-season battle

The Arkansas neighbors are considered by the coaches and squad as a very good choice, since their relationship with sister Land Grant School has always been very friendly and with a high degree of keen, wholesome, competition. Despite the Lions 4-2-1 season record, they possess, as usual, one of the top aggregations in the region.

The Prairie View Bowl, second oldest to the Rose Bowl in California, continues to grow in national popularity. Some 10,000 or more Southwest football fans are expected to be in Houston for the occasion. Prairie View's record in these annual games has been 13 wins; 8 losses; and 2 ties. Their game with Bishop College last year ended in a 6-6 deadlock.

Tickets for the Buffalo Stadium tilt will go on sale soon. Alumni and friends of the institution are urged to mail an application and check for tickets directly to the college Athletic Council. Pre-sale tickets are set at Kickoff time scheduled for 2 o'clock January 1. Most of the Prairie View student body including the band, R.O.T.C. drill squad, majorettes and cheerleaders, will be in attendance to furnish several outstanding activities at pre-game and halftime.

"GIVE ME THAT GOOD OLD PRAIRIE VIEW SPIRIT . . . "

Weekly Prayer Services Attract 1100 Students

Prairie View A & M College is noted for a number of outstanding services-but here is another, probably the most unexpected of anything the college might boast.

The biggest prayer meeting to be found anywhere in this area is held at Prairie View. With 1100 regularly attending every week, it is quite possible the best attended anywhere.

Purely a voluntary matter for students, only a few at first found time in the busy campus life to attend the Tuesday night prayer services, started some years ago under the guidance of Reverend M. M. Pierson, a Houston pastor. The number grew with the weeks and this Fall every Tuesday evening at seven some 1100 or more are right back in the college auditorium for this weekly devotion. The prayer service now rates at the top among the most popular activities on the campus.

A key to the success of this great program is the leader, Reverend Pierson. He has organized this large group into a working organization with almost every single one of them feeling that he is a part of its unique services. Unlike many other college activities, there is a live interest which is sustained to the very end-and at closing time, all eleven hundred seem to hesitate to go home.

There are regular student leaders; A. C. Rhymes, David Turner, Walter Mitchell and Edward Hill. They sit with Reverend Pierson on the platform and help keep the round of interesting events going. They also lead the songs and read scripture lessons preparatory to the minister's always brief inspirational messages.

Added to the regular services each week, there is always a good program produced by student groups which features religious songs, poems, and readings. There is talent discovered here in one night, that normally would take a long period of coaxing and preparation. There is a male singing group and several girls'

THE PRAIRIE VIEW STANDARD

Christmas holidays began officially on December 20th when a fleet of special buses provided transportation to thousands of homes over the state. But if you want to know the truth, Christmas for Prairie View started December 11 and the Yuletide spirit was high and rich with all the good things for which this period was on the college radio program over

KLEE Sunday, November 16.

December, of course, was not all holiday time at the college. All of the classes moved into high gear to meet certain assignments and wrap up the work until January. Committee meetings for faculty groups were even heavier than usual and business was "as usual" in all departments.

It was more the Christmas spirit that made the difference and it is this type of thing that makes the Prairie View family a great unit in the cause of brotherhood and Christleast a hundred college and Training mas living.

YULETIDE SPIRIT FEATURED IN COLLEGE ACTIVITIES

Prairie View-in every sense of the phrase. Appropriately opening the long holiday observance with religious emphasis, future activities planned ranged from class programs, building parties, elaborate decorations, club dances, to a Christmas play which involved kindergarten to college students and finally the climaxing Christmas Cantata, presented annually by the department of Music.

It would be impossible to list and describe the many programs featured in these earlier activities. Those involving the largest groups included the annual R.O.T.C. Officers dinner meant. and ball, the Y dance, and the Garden Club's annual Christmas Brighten-up Campaign, which put the entire campus in attractive and novel Christmas lights.

The Prairie View Sunday School presented an original play by Mrs. Mable F. Bradley entitled "The Silence of God" on December 9 in the college auditorium. This production also included a "Christmas Carol" which was a playlet dramatized by the Junior department of the Sunday School. At
