NUMBER 5

A. CONGRATULATIONS AND THANKS FOR JOBS WELL DONE

1. The Prairie View Open Basketball Tournament was an overwhelming success. Those immediately responsible for its management are to be especially congratulated. The college is anxious to thank the entire personnel for wonderful cooperation in this regard.
2. The State Meeting for Negro Extension Agents held here last week served a vital need. This cooperation with the Extension Division undoubtedly called for sacrifices from the entire personnel. For this splendid effort, the college offers sincere thanks and congratulations.
3. The coronation ceremonies in which "Miss Prairie View" was crowned Queen of the College represents the most colorful and glamorous exercise of its type in the nation. It certainly was the best in the history of the school. Congratulations and thanks are extended to those responsible for this colorful event.

B. CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME

The Infantile Paralysis March of Dimes Drive, like disease, respects no line of color, race, or creed. Everyone knows of the splendid work this movement has been doing. Therefore, we are sure that each employee will go all out in his contribution to this lofty endeavor in the interest of public welfare. Make your contribution now to your Director.

C SECOND SEMESTER BEGINS FEBRUARY 1

The first semester has come and gone. Let us all strive to give the full measure of service and wholehearted cooperation this new semester that we gave during the past.

D. REGRET!

Federal Housing Facilities for veterans will be delayed an additional forty-five days by request of the contractors.

E. FEBRUARY EVENTS

1. Mrs. Catherine Moton Patterson in piano recital.

G. Now is the time to plan our spring garden and yard beautification programs. Let's all strive to make our community one of the most inviting places in Texas.

H. PHILANTHROPY CONTINUES

Mr. Hobart Taylor, Sr., outstanding alumnus and successful business man, recently made a gift to the University in the amount of $500. The fund is to be used in any manner designated by the Principal.

I. SPECIAL!

For the celebration of Negro History Week—February 9-16—the Department of History, Philosophy, and Government is making some special plans. With the assistance of the faculties of Music, Art, Agriculture, and Mechanic Arts, a folk opera entitled "Nat Turner" is being planned for February 14. The work is under the direction of Mr. George Woolfolk. We are asking for these people your usual good spirit of cooperation.

J. SIMPLE BUT TRUE

"Combined efforts of specialists, under the influence of intelligent direction, result in a total achievement greater than the sum of its parts."

I am

Very truly yours,

E. B. Evans
