To Be Announced

At the last annual meeting your President attempted to convey the idea to this membership that this organization is a cooperative agency composed of close associates who have common bonds of interest. He also said that its motive is service and its functions are the promotion of thrift and the provision of a source of inexpensive and unembarrassing credit to its members for productive, and provident purposes. The idea is being repeated now for emphasis.

If he is wrong he'll change it anyway.
