Home Demonstrators will have an opportunity to attend a special discussion on home sewing by Mrs. Jane Scott from the Simplicity Pattern Company here on June 6, 2:00 P.M., to 4:00 P.M. to the Animal Industries Building Auditorium.

Mrs. Scott will include a demonstration of how to determine the correct pattern size for which figure—the prime requirement for making a well-fitting garment. In con- clusion, Mrs. Scott is herself an example of a perfect half-size figure.

Other subjects of interest to be included in her discussion will be style-basing on various figure types and suitable fabrics and colors for each. Diagrams and charts will illustrate some of the points Mrs. Scott will point out. She will also show new types of fabrics and will give suggestions for their use.

Mrs. Scott travels all over the United States introducing a service program, originated by the Educational Division of Simplicity Pattern for women's groups, Extension Service people, Home Demon- stration and County Agents, and Clothing Specialists.

All persons in the Prairie View Community who are interested in fashion are welcome to attend.

P. V.'s Contribution to World Peace

Is Seen at R.O.T.C. Field Day

Recently, when P. V. B. O. T. C. Regiment marched on Blackboard Lane, more than 400 cadets demonstrated the college's "contribution to world peace."

The summer uniform of the cadets was complemented by "gorgeous and规范" of the military staff, and visiting "inspectors" were pleased with the overall spectacle.

The multicolored scarfs—blue, red, and yellow, symbols of the cadets and student body—became more apparent.

Four cadets were named this week for their "extraordinary" performance. In the R. O. T. C., their general academic standing, and their participation in the activities of the college. They are: LOSTON HARRIS, ESSEX FOWLES, Frederick Wallace, and WALLACE MILLER.

The battalion commander, Harold C. O. T. C. Cadet, demonstrated the college's beauty of the scene becomes more apparent.

Competitions

At all levels, drilling competitions were held. Particularly noteworthy was the rivalry between companies, platoons, and squads for platoon (s) and "Dog" groups commanded by Cadet Captains Philip Thax and George Fishers, respectively.
