B. ENROLLMENT -

The enrollment at Prairie View, as revealed by the Registrar's Office, has hit an all time high of 2,100 students. If the Institution had sufficient housing, this enrollment would easily exceed the 3,000 mark. It was indeed painful to deny nearly 1,000 students the coveted privilege of enrolling here this session. By the First of September more than 1,900 students had sent, in advance, the initial payment of $49.80.

C. MISS MARY ERNESTINE SUAREZ -

Dean Mary Ernestine Suarez began her duties as Dean of Women at Prairie View A. and M. College in the Fall of 1928. For twenty years she served the Institution faithfully and efficiently in every assignment, and at no time did she ever "grow weary in well doing." Her life was a symbol of the exemplary graces of fine womanhood. The young women who came in direct contact with her were immeasurably stimulated and elevated by her fine spirit. Happily, arrangements were made with the Jefferson Davis Hospital, Houston, Texas to continue her in connection with Prairie View as the Dean of our girls, who are in Nurse Training in Houston, under the Co-operative Program between the two Institutions.

E. A GOOD TEST - va H. Corrett

In glancing over the important assignments in other Institutions of higher learning, it is gratifying to observe the selection of numbers of Prairie View graduates. If the final test of the strength and usefulness of an Institution are found in the capable performance of its product, then Prairie View might justifiably be proud of the recognition of its graduates by other Institutions. Our students are represented on the faculties of: Fisk University, Nashville, Tennessee; Tennessee A. and I. College, Nashville, Tennessee; A. and T. College, Greensboro, North Carolina; Southern University, Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Grambling State College, Grambling, Louisiana; Jackson State College, Jackson, Mississippi; Florida A. and M. College, Tallahassee, Florida; Tuskegee Institute, Alabama; Langston University, Langston, Oklahoma;

Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Missouri; Kentucky State College, Frankfort, Kentucky; West Virginia State College, Institute W. Virginia; Virginia State College, Petersburg, Virginia; A. and M. College, Alcorn, Alabama; Georgia State College, Savannah, Georgia; Stowe Teachers College, St. Louis, Missouri; Cheyney State Teachers College, Pennsylvania; Howard University, Washington, D. C.; Tillotson College, Austin, Texas; Sam Huston, Austin, Texas; Texas State University for Negroes, Houston, Texas; Mary Allen College, Crockett, Texas; Jarvis College, Hawkins, Texas; Texas College, Tyler, Texas; Butler College, Tyler; Paul Quinn College, Waco, Texas; St. Phillips Junior College, San Antonio, Texas; Lamar Junior College, Beaumont, Texas.

F. WOMEN'S WELFARE ORGANIZATION -

It isn't generally known that on the campus of Prairie View there has been going for several years a most useful Organization known as the Women's Welfare Organization which is sponsored by the ladies of the campus in an effort to bring aid and assistance to unfortunate human beings. It is made possible by contributions of interested friends, occasionally the Faculty Community Chest, but mainly the ladies put on various devices of fund raising. We want to commend this worthy movement and beg of you, your sympathetic interest and support. Below we are giving an excerpt from the Annual Report of the Organization which covers its purpose:

"The Women's Welfare Organization on Prairie View's campus serves as a medium through which those who are interested in rendering unselfish service to those who are less fortunate might do so.

Our territory covers Hempstead, Waller, and Prairie View Community. We give emergency aid to those in need until we are able to secure state aid for those who are eligible for it. Medical aid has been given to children with deformed bodies, poor vision, defective teeth, as well as food and clothing have been supplied.

This aid is secured through co-operative efforts by the members of the organization, donations from other clubs and organizations on the campus and individual aid which might be money, food or clothing. We assure you that we are grateful for help in any form. The following is a partial financial report of the organization:

Income:$502.93
 Expenditures: 360.03
 Balance on Hand: 142.90

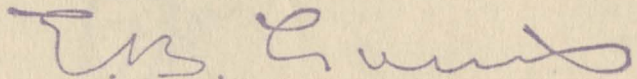

For those interested we ask you to join us. Meetings are held the second Tuesday in each month, 8:00 P.M., Faculty Lounge in the Recreation Hall."

G. CONCLUSION -

As these lines are written, the news coming over the radio, and in the daily press greatly disturb our way of thinking and living. Whether we realize it or not, should another world conflict break out, this civilization in which we live will be most gravely endangered. Dr. Willard E. Givens, Executive Secretary of the National Education Association, made this timely statement -

"That in our present confused world, it is of the utmost urgency that Education be made as effective as possible. We must learn to rely upon Intelligence and Co-operation rather than on force."

Yours truly,

E. B. Evans
President
