Elementary Education is a most popular subject due to the requirements of the Gilmer-Aiken Law, which was enacted by the last Texas Legislature and became immediately effective.

C. SUAREZ HALL

The Administrative Council gave unanimous consent to the naming of the new Girls' Dormitory "Suarez Hall", in memory of the late Mary Ernestine Suarez, who served efficiently as Dean of Women at Prairie View for more than twenty years. This action, without a doubt, will meet the wholehearted approval of the ex-students and parents of Prairie View who knew her as "Dean Suarez."

D. ANIMAL HUSBANDRY BUILDING

The contract for the Animal Husbandry Building was let to the Fonsworth Construction Company, Houston, Texas, who was the lowest bidder for $435,000. This building will contain classrooms, laboratories, offices, judging arena, storage facilities, auditorium, refrigeration, etc. The contractor has promised to have this building ready for occupancy by September, 1951.
