B. RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

Religious Emphasis Week will be observed on the College Campus, November 30 through December 4. The theme for the program this year is "Religion As A Reality."

Prominent visiting speakers will augment the local committee in providing conferences, general assemblies, classroom discussions on religion and other activities designed to show how Christainity is a vital part of our everyday living. Reverend L. C. Phillip is serving as coordinator of the week's activities.

C. "Y" LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

The overall theme for the annual "Y" Leadership Institute scheduled December 5-7 is "Facing A New World."

According to Dr. J. L. Brown, Southwest Conference Director, more than 300 young men and women from all parts of the state will attend the three-day sessions.

Visiting speakers will include Bishop Bertram Doyle; Reverend Henry Harvey II, Oklahoma City; Dr. Thomas F. Freeman, Houston; Wendell Douglas, Dallas, and Mrs. Mary Francis Simpson, San Angelo.

D. ANNUAL FACULTY BANQUET

The annual "Faculty Banquet is scheduled for December 9. This occasion is rapidly developing to be a major highlight in the college entertainment program and this year's program promises to be another "great event." It is hoped that all members of the staff will plan to attend and will indicate their intentions early so that arrangements may go forward without delay.

According to the chairman of the Faculty Recreation Committee, the annual banquet fee remains at $1.50 and that members will be contacted through a departmental representative.

E. HOME ECONOMICS FOOD SHOW

The annual Food Show, sponsored by the School of Home Economics, is scheduled this year for December 10. Ribbons will be awarded for the best food entries in each division.

F. CHRISTMAS PROGRAMS

The Christmas season is now upon us and we may look forward to several programs and other activities in observance of this joyous yuletide occasion.

- A. Christmas Play- The Prairie View Sunday School will present its annual Christmas play - "The Fourth Wise Man" on December 7. The play is compiled and directed by Mrs. Mable F. Bradley and Dr. T. P. Dooley is Superintendent of the Sunday School.
- B. Christmas Oratorio - The Department of Music will present its annual Christmas program on December 14.
- C. Christmas Brighten-Up - The local Garden Club is sponsoring its fourth annual Brighten-Up Campaign, and it is hoped that all members of the college family will participate.
- D. Training School - Always of interest to faculty and students is the regular Christmas program staged by the Training School. This event is scheduled for December 17.

G. CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

Christmas Holidays will begin with the closing of school on December 20 and will end January 2, 1953. Classes will be resumed at 8:00, Friday morning, January 2.

H. FOOTBALL SEASON CLOSES

As the 1952 Football season closes, we take this occasion to express congratulatinns and high praise to the Panther squad and coaches for a very successful year. The faculty men in a recent special dinner for the team expressed this sentiment very appropriately.

It is with pleasure that we present the following current season record:

1. Prairie View	58	Bishop	0
2. Prairie View	53	Wiley	0
3. Prairie View	7	Florida A & M	10
4. Prairie View	39	Arkansas AM&N	12
5. Prairie View	44	Texas College	12
6. Prairie View	27	Grambling	14
7. Prairie View	18	Langston	0
8. Prairie View	31	Southern	6

I. PRAIRIE VIEW BOWL GAME

The 25th annual Prairie View Bowl game scheduled January 1, 1953 will feature the mighty Panthers versus Texas Southern University's Tigers. Both teams have been highly successful in their respective conferences and this year's event may be the most important in the history of the occasion. T S U is co-champion with Lincoln (Missouri) in the midwestern conference.

J. HOME COMING

We take occasion here to thank the members of the Alumni Association, faculty members, and students for the excellent cooperation given, in all respect, in making the past Homecoming celebration a very successful and memorable event.

The largest group of visitors in Homecoming history was present for this occasion.

K. POLL TAX

The Poll Tax is a requirement for voting privileges in this state, and it is our feeling that all members of the staff should participate in this important civic responsibility. We, therefore, urge that you pay your Poll Tax in order to qualify to vote in all elections. Poll Tax payments can be made in Mr. O. J. Thomas' office, Old Agricultural Building.

L. IN CLOSING

Permit me to express warm season greetings to each of you. May you and your families enjoy a very Merry Christmas holiday and best wishes for the New Year.

Very truly yours,

E. B. Evans
President
