MONDAY NIGHT, JANUARY 20...7:30 PM Shakespeare is barnstorming American universities and colleges again, wrapped up in as neat a little package as you would want to see. These players go under that magic name to Shakespearian students, the "Ben Greet Players", but instead of a company of 50, there are two-Daisy Vivian and Henry Joyner-the last remaining players of the famous English group to carry on in the Ben Greet tradition.
...Proving that quality and not quantity counts, Mr. and Mrs. Joyner bring Shakespear in a new light. No longer is it hampered by unnecessary wordage nor are there lavish sets to draw the attention away from the play. "The play's the thing" was B G's battle-cry and to that end, they have devoted their art.
