"NAT TURNER"

Nat Turner, a folk opera in five scenes is centered around the activities of a Negro Preacher who staged an uprising in South Hampton County Virginia in 1831. The Department of History, Government and Philosophy with the cooperation of the Department of Music and others is planning to present this opera in the near future. Mr Robert Singletary and Miss Christine Sanders are to have the leading roles and the concert choir and the Men's Glee Club are to be the supporting cast. As part of the celebration for Negro History Week this program has been dedicated to the Veterans of World War II who form a part of our student body. We are especially grateful to Mrs Davis, Mr Warner, Mr King, Rev Phillips and many others who have helped to create the original music, the words, and the scenery for the successful production of this opera.
