B. A WORD OF THANKS

To those who contributed in the promotion of our many activities in the month of December, a word of thanks is sincerely expressed. Outstanding among those events were Nutrition Week, the "Y" Leadership Institute, Faculty Dinner-Dance, special athletic events, Health Program and many programs in observance of the Holiday Season. Christmas decorations throughout the campus and the community were appropriate, as usual, and this always adds immeasurably to the spirit of the occasion.

C. CONGRATULATIONS

To this year's Twenty-five Year Service Award winners. They are Miss Dorothy I. Burdine, Professor of Education, and Dr. J. M. Coruthers, Professor of Agriculture. Certificates and pins were awarded to these veteran members of the college staff during the annual Faculty Dinner which was held in December in the Memorial Center.

D. RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

The Reverend Walter Willis, Chaplain at Huston-Tillotson College, will serve as keynote speaker for Religious Emphasis Week scheduled on January 13-16 at the College. The theme for this year's observance is - "A New Look-- 1. At Religion, 2. At Men-Women Relations, and Sex, and 3. At Human Rights and Freedom."

E. FINAL EXAMINATIONS

January is the month of final examinations and semester changes. While specific instructions concerning these important activities will come from the Deans' and Registrar's Offices, the Newsletter attempts to pass on this word of emphasis in asking for your full cooperation in carrying out these functions according to established regulations.

F. BASKETBALL

The Basketball season takes over officially this month and continues throughout February. The College is proud of the current 6-0 record of the Panthers and of their prospects for another successful season.

G. REMEMBER
