B. A WORD OF THANKS

To those who contributed in the promotion of our many activities in the month of December, a word of thanks is sincerely expressed. Outstanding among those events were Nutrition Week, Boy Scouts Appreciation Dinner, "Y" Leadership Institute, the NAIA Play-off and championship football games, Public Health Christmas program, and other activities leading up to the observance of the Christmas holidays.

C. RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

"Resources for Adventurous Living" is the theme for Religious Emphasis Week scheduled January 12-15. Visiting speakers for the occasion include: Rabbi Samuel I. Weingart and Attorney George Washington, Jr., both of Houston. Campus religious organizations will participate in discussions of the theme during their regular weekly meetings. The Reverend M. M. Pierson of Houston will speak on the topic- "Prayer, A Resource for Adventurous Living" at the regular prayer service Tuesday night.

D. FINAL EXAMINATIONS

January is the month of final examinations and semester changes. While specific instructions concerning these important activities will come from the Deans' and Registrar's Offices, the Newsletter attempts to pass on this word of emphasis in asking for your full cooperation in carrying out these functions according to established regulations.

E. BASKETBALL

The Basketball season takes over officially this month and continues through February. We wish the team and our new Coach Bob Hopkins all the success possible as they begin their conference schedule on January 4.
