B. A WORD OF THANKS

Special appreciation is extended to all employees contributing in any way to our special activities held during the past month.

C. CORONATION OF MISS PRAIRIE VIEW

The Annual Coronation ceremonies for Miss Prairie View have been scheduled for January 7 in the Health and Physical Education Building. Miss Cheryl K. McIntyre, a senior dietetics major from Bonham, Texas, is Miss Prairie View of 1966-67. She was elected by popular vote of the student body last Spring.

This event is considered one of our major student social activities of the year.

D. RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

"Minority Group Survived Techniques" is the Theme of Religious Emphasis Week scheduled at the College on January 8-11. Visiting speakers for the occasion include The Reverend Shelby Rooks, Jr., Associate Director, Fund for Theological Education, Princeton, New Jersey, and Rabbi Newton J. Friedman of Temple Emanuel, Beaumont, Texas.

Staff members are invited to participate in the various sessions during this observance.

E. INTERNATIONAL NIGHT

A program of unusual interest is International Night scheduled for Monday evening, January 9 in the Health and Physical Education Building. This is an annual project of the Department of Economics and Geography.

F. ROTC COMMISSIONING EXERCISES

The Mid-year Commissioning Exercises by The Department of Military Science have been set for January 19 in the Health and Physical Education Building. The speaker for the occasion is Lt. General Ralph E. Haines, Jr., Commanding General, III U. S. Army Corp. and Fort Hood.

G. SEMESTER CHANGES

January is the month of final examinations and semester changes. While specific instructions concerning these important activities will come from the Deans' and Registrar's offices, the Newsletter attempts to pass on this word of emphasis in asking for your full cooperation in carrying out these functions according to established regulations.
