Those attending the meeting were: Donald Dorsey, Edward Kuykendall, Edell Lydia, Dorothy Douglas, Carolyn Edwards, Robert Franklin, William Stickney, Franklin Alexander, Stelvin Mitchell, F. Lott, Ronald Briggs, Oliver Brown, Tonnie Corruthers, Nolan Ward and Roscoe Harrison.

The Plans for Progress Program is to encourage students to seek and qualify for jobs in this highly industrialized age. This program is mainly directed toward the minority groups.

This program will work in correlation with the College Placement Bureau throughout America.

National Service Fraternity To Be Organized at PV

Dr. E. B. Evans president of Prairie View A&M College, recently gave his whole hearted approval of Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity and pledged his support toward establishing a chapter here at Prairie View. Alpha Phi Omega is a service fraternity for college and University men, founded in 1925 and now active on more than 310 campuses in the United States. More than 88,000 men have been affiliated since the founding of the first Chapter at Lafayette College, Easton, Pennsylvania.

Alpha Phi Omega is approved by the National Council of The Boy Scouts of America as the college service organizations for Scouts and former Scouts. However, the fraternity is self-governing and self supporting.

Membership in this National service fraternity offers an opportunity to develop leadership, opportunity for fellowship and association with a cross-section of campus men, representing diverse interests and backgrounds and an opportunity to take part in service projects which bring benefit to others and bring satisfaction to the members.

To ensure that the principles of Leadership, Friendship and Service are carried out as prescribed by the fraternity, C. A. Wood, A. N. Poindexter, Oliver fact was brought into view that firms and large companies are hiring the selected few in these minority groups and exercising a process called "window dressing." With the help of this program the College Placement Bureau can better inform students as to what jobs are available.

The topic for debate is "Resolved: that law enforcement agencies in the United States should be given greater freedom in the investigation and prosecution of crime."

PV Debaters Score Again

The Prairie View A & M College Debaters traveled 900 miles over the week-end of March 4-5, to represent the College in a National Debating Tournament. The tournament was held in beautiful Colorado Springs, Colorado, at Colorado College. The astute and formidable team of Maxine Burly and James Melton represented Prairie View in the competition. The College debate topic for this year is Resolved: "That Law Enforcement Agencies in the United States Should be given Greater Freedom in the Investigation and Prosecution of Crime". Our team presented an impressive case, as usual.

Miss Burly and Mr. Melton brought honor to Prairie View by placing fourth in the Nation, out of a total of thirty (30) competing schools! Our team lacked only THREE points from participating in the finals! An outstanding achievement was made by Scott Thomas also, in the area of Oration. Mr. Thomas, the regular debating partner of Miss Archie M. Williams, placed Fourth in the Oration competition.

Pantherland, I'm sure, takes pride in giving our debating society sincere congratulations for its recent forensic feats. Accompanying the debaters to Colorado, were Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Fischer, both of the English Department.

What It Takes to Move Ahead

If you missed the performances in the State Band Festival last weekend, you probably missed one of the best examples of hard work, concentration and overall excellence displayed any where in Texas, or the nation.

Several bands were outstanding. The Hebert High School group from Beaumont was "super" excellent. The young musicians under the able direction of Conductor Henry Williams, Jr., played with extraordinary finesse and the crowd roared their approval when they had finished. Judges and other leaders were equally generous in their approval. Some said — "There is probably not a better band anywhere" — and added — "There is certainly not a better high school band anywhere."

The performance of these groups last week drove home a significant point in connection with our public schools and quality of education. Many of these groups were "second to none", which indicates top flight training. If we can produce teachers in other fields possessing the ability, the desire, and determination demonstrated by many of those band instructors, the problems of inequality of training would soon fade away.

If you saw the faces of these young musicians — alert, intelligent, eager — you knew that they had much of what it takes to move ahead.

One Giant Step

by Roscoe Harrison

Many of us will complete our four year college career and not know where to turn. The majority of us will more than likely go into a safe profession such as teaching profession, but we tend to be afraid of seeking other challenging careers. We tend to be passive in our thoughts and goals.

However, remember that you have studied hard for four years and to settle for a mediocre position in life would be cheating yourself indeed.

Why not investigate every job opportunity possible in your field and evaluate them accordingly. We would be surprised of the many fields that we could enter if we would only take the time to find out about the many job opportunities available.

Let's take that one giant step with a challenging mind, a strong will, and an aim toward the ultimate peak of success.

Cry The Beloved Country

Cry the Beloved Country, the third film in the Fine Films Series took us to the trouble-ridden country of South Africa. The 1952 movie, based on the novel by Alan Paton told the story of a simple country priest who comes to Johannesburg in search of his son. The priest has never been to the big city before and is ill-equipped to deal with the overwhelming poverty, misery and human degradation which confront him.

The film which was photographed in South Africa succeeds very well in using the background of the slums of Johannesburg to mirror the dejection and despair of the poor who dwell there.

Canada Lee portrays the old priest; Sidney Poitier is the younger priest who guides the older man knowing full well the destructive power of the Shanty town and the inability of any single man, be he priest or social worker, black or white, to fight against it.

Unfortunately the sound track was difficult to understand and at times barely audible over the crackle. There was some difficulty with the picture as well and so mechanical factors hampered the viewer's enjoyment. However, it did succeed in sending some of us back to the original source, Paton's novel.

Many Thanks As We Move Forward

By Fred Carter

The members of the Prairie View Student Industrial Education Association wish to express our appreciation and gratitude to the participants who helped to make our installation program a grand success. We are especially grateful to Mr. Franklin Wesley, who gave the key note address, for his most resourceful and fruitful speech.

Although this single occasion is not an end within itself, but rather, a mean toward an end. We have laid the basic foundation upon which our organization can revolve. Now, the time has come when we must fit the component parts!

It is our hope as we move forward that we will not only be able to make our organization an instrument of totality, but we will also be able to bring its purpose into closer relationship with our overall objectives.

The organization is designed to make a definite contribution to the development of the students. Its operations and activities are planned and implemented by them. It is not frequent that we have an opportunity to take a direct part in areas of responsibility that could very well shape our destiny. Usually, our responsibilities are canned for us, and the most critical part about the situation — is that — we are left without a can opener.

Finally, our organization will be as strong as its members exemplify a definite willingness to support its leaders and its activities. Therefore, let us work together with mature deliberation to make our organization one we can be both proud and productive.

The Silent World

The Silent World is a technical documentary-style account of one of the most fascinating voyages known to man, an adventure in the beautiful realms below the surface of the sea. Winner of several international awards, this striking film will be shown at 8:15 (note the change from earlier showings in the Fine Film Series) in the Memorial Center Ballroom next Thursday, March 24, 1966.

Frenchman Yves Cousteau has long been known for his amazing photographic expeditions into the depths of the ocean but previous films available have been only short subjects in black-and-white. In this feature film, Cousteau takes you on a voyage with his ship, the Calypso, and his crew, showing all the phases of the research operation. Never before has the beauty of undersea life been captured with such impact. Photographically the film is amazing, but the techniques of research as well as a number of incidents that occur during the trip also make it intensely interesting.

A French production, the film will be narrated in English and is a must for all those looking for an escape, whether into the depths of the sea, or into natural beauty, or simply from the books for an hour and a half.

Shorter Skirts

From the A&T COLLEGE REGISTER, Greensboro, North Carolina. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

With reference to a recent article concerning fashions entitled "Padded Stockings - Shorter Skirts", I would like to say that even though girls can wear the skirts above the knees with these hose, it should not be taken to the extreme stage.

One must take into consideration the fact that all styles should vary accordingly to the individual. I must admit, the textured hose do look nice on young ladies for campuswear, especially when the hose are harmonious with their attire. However, skirt length is a minor aspect. A young lady can wear her skirt on or below her knee and be as charming as one with her skirt way above her knee. In my opinion, many of the young ladies are wearing their skirts entirely too short with or without the padded stockings.

In conclusion, I would like to

Talent Auditions for Six Flags Scheduled March 20

Prominent showman Charles R. Meeker Jr. will head the delegation of talent scouts from SIX FLAGS Over Texas, the multi-million dollar theme amusement park and tourist attraction between Dallas and Fort Worth and will be arriving in Houston to audition area collegians for roles in the Six Flags Campus Revue summer musical variety show.

Area auditions will be held at the KTRK-TV studios, 3310 Bissonnet, on Sunday, March 20 at 2 p.m.

The Houston audition is part of a two-month audition tour that carried SIX FLAGS talent scouts onto college campuses in Georgia, South Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama and Oklahoma, as well as Texas.

Collegians interested in auditioning should bring all materials, costumes, music, etc. for their particular act. SIX FLAGS will have an accompanist available at the auditions, but students may use their own if they desire.

The Campus Revue is an original, 55-minute show featuring top college talent. It is especially written, professionally directed and fully staged each summer from mid-June through Labor Day at SIX FLAGS Over Texas.

Auditions in prior years have brought out a wealth of talented students seeking coveted roles in the Campus Revue. Many auditionees who were not selected for the Campus Revue were picked for other spots in the Park's Live Show Department. These included specialty acts, as well as the popular Crazy Horse Saloon singers and dancers.

SIX FLAGS attracted 1,713,000 visitors last year from all over the United States.

The Campus Revue production is just one of more than 80 attractions, shows and rides featured at SIX FLAGS.

Cub Pack 141 Sponsors Several Activities

The Scouting Program for Cub Scout Pack No. 141 at Prairie View for 1966 is active and progressive. Under the leadership of Mr. Clyde Christopher, the Cub Master, a constructive and enjoyable series of activities has been planned and executed.

Perhaps the most exciting project so far in 1966 has been the Pinewood Derby. The Cub Scouts made, with the aid of their fathers, their own cars and raced them against each other according to age groups. The parents enjoyed the competition almost as much as the Scouts. The winners were: Michael Christopher, age 8; Byron Henry, age 9; and Faribanks Jones, age 10.

The most recent event was the highly successful Blue and Gold Banquet which has become an annual affair. The banquet this year was the best ever. The food, prepared under the capable supervision of Mr. Joseph Battle, was delicious and almost all of the families represented in the pack were present. President E. B. Evans spoke to the boys, their scout leaders and their parents. The next major affair will be the annual Kite Derby which features competition in kite flying among the Cub Scouts.

Working closely in support of the Cubmaster are two rather special assistants, Major Jiles Daniels and Mr. Cube Charleston. Probably the heart of the program consists of the work done for the boys' development by the Den Mothers who lead the four dens into which the pack is divided. They are Mrs. Libbie Brown, Den 1; Mrs. Bettie Richards, Den 2; Mrs. Dorothy Williams, Den 3; and Mrs. Billie Collins, Den 4. Some of the assistant Den Mothers are: Mrs. Temple Howell and Mrs. LaVerta Jones, Den 1; and Mrs.

Willa Marion, Den 4. The Scout Committee working with Mr. Christopher for Pack 141: Chairman H. T. Jones, Mr. Alvin Coleman, Doctor J. E. Berry, Doctor L. C. Collins, Mr. Joseph R. Battle, Doctor E. M. Lewis, Mr. Harden L. Jones, Major Ernest Howell, and Mr. Marion Henry.

College Scholarship Program Scripto Offers Free

A convenient, pocket-size book — "How To Get College Scholarships" — has been published by Scripto, Inc., and is available free.

Written by educational authority Gene R. Hawes with an introduction by Henry S. Coleman, director of admissions, Columbia College, Columbia University, the book is a handy reference for students, parents, teachers and counselors.

Total financial aid available to college students, including scholarships, loans, and money earned by students who work their way through school, is estimated at more than $1 billion. Scholarships are no longer strictly prizes awarded for scholastic excellence, according to Hawes. Good scholastic ability is required in most cases, but many scholarships are designed to provide direct financial aid to students not in position financially to attend the colleges of their choice.

Today, about one in every five students receives financial aid in one or more of its main forms: scholarship grant, loan, and job. "How To Get College Scholarships" discusses each area, suggests how to obtain additional information, and pulls together helpful details usually available through libraries, college admission offices, student guidance centers, and other geographically scattered sources.

The book lists various scholarships and other financial aids available at many of the nation's colleges, tells where additional information may be obtained, and discusses at great length some of the aids available through companies, service organizations, private groups, endowed foundations, and federal, state, and city governmental bodies.

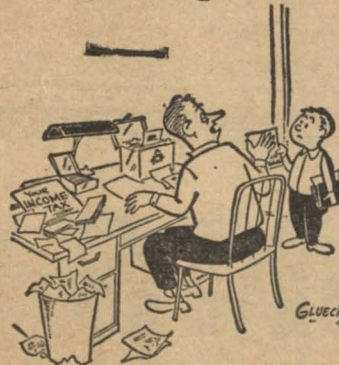

Coupons for ordering the book are on Scripto pen and pencil displays in stationery, drug, tobacco, and other stores. It also is available from Scripto, P. O. Box 4847, Atlanta, Ga. 30302.

Cadets Journey to Fort Hood For Army Orientation Program

Forty-two cadets (junior and selected sophomores) have been chosen to travel to Fort Hood, Texas for the ROTC Cadet Orientation Program. The program, scheduled for the period March 23-25, is conducted for the purpose of familiarizing the cadets with duties common to the various branches of the Army and military activities of an Army post. This orientation is closely related to the General Military Science (GMS) Curriculum offered at Prairie View A&M College and enables the cadets to correlate the instruction received in the GMS program with the Army. Additionally, the orientation program is designed to assist those cadets in selecting the branch of the Army in which they are desirous of serving and to motivate both advanced and basic course cadets towards seeking a military career in the Active Army.

Upon arriving at Fort Hood, the cadets are to be met by escort officers from the Second Armored Division, the host installation, and will be escorted on a general tour of the post in order to show the "on-post" facilities. They will receive such briefings that pertain to the mission organization, tactical roles and training of units of the Army. Other scheduled events and displays include tours of the Fort Hood Museum, static displays and demonstrations by various units, to include Armored Cavalry, Artillery, Signal, Infantry and Armor. If time permits, the cadets, divided into smaller groups, will be assigned to one Lieutenant of ROTC origin in order to observe the duties, functions and operation of company personnel especially that of a newly commissioned Second Lieutenant.

Those junior cadets who were bestowed this prodigious opportunity are: Wendell C. Baker, Sullivan J. Baker, Jr., Haywood Ballenger, James A. Campbell, Don K. Clark, Lovette R. Coulter, James L. Dancer, Otis D. Evans, Richard T. Grant, Fern-dell Henry, Eddie J. Hawkins, Jr., Lue E. Henson, Millage House, Marvin L. Howard, Harmon W. Kelley, James E. Liggins, Willis Lowery, Jr., Paul J. Matthews, Garfield W. McCon-mandatory for all Military Science 222 cadets (sophomores) and is one of the devices used in selecting personnel for the ROTC Advance Course. Other elements which go into allowing one to enter the ROTC Advance Course are; the individual's desire; the recommendations of the Military Staff with the concurrence of the Professor of Military Science and the applicant's overall college academic record.

In conjunction to being mandatory for all sophomore cadets, the RQ Test is available to all male students who are not presently enrolled in MS II, who will have attained junior standings or above in September 1966, or who have served a minimum of one year on Active Military

Death Book Closed For 1965

Texas Department of Public Safety Director Homer Garrison Jr. announced today the annual traffic "death book" has been officially closed for 1965, showing that more people were killed on the streets and highways last year than ever before with a total of 3,028 fatalities.

This total was 22 above the 3,006 traffic deaths recorded in 1964, which also was an all-time high.

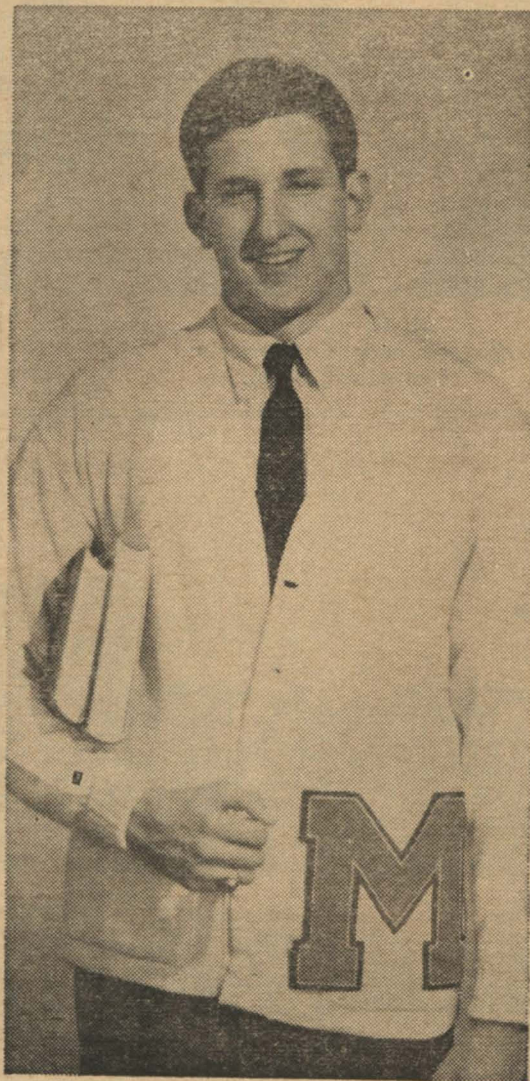

However, Garrison said, there were 26 fewer fatal accidents in 1965 than in 1964. Whereas 3,028 persons were killed in 1965 in 2,460 accidents, 3,006 were killed in 1964 in 2,486 accidents.

The increase in fatalities was 0.7 per cent. The decrease in fatal accidents was 1.05 per cent.

"In addition to this tragic loss of life," Garrison said, "there was an estimated 186,062 injuries suffered in traffic accidents compared to 182,081 in 1964. The economic loss in traffic reached an estimated $498,087,000, compared to $486,846,000 in 1964."

He explained that the traffic toll almost throughout last year was running slightly less than the year before, until a tremendous unexpected upsurge came in December, when 363 persons were killed in 293 fatal accidents. In December 1964, 280 persons were killed in 246 accidents.

December, 1965, was the highest month on record for traffic fatalities. On the weekend prior to the Christmas holidays last year, a terrific toll of 49 lives was lost in just two days in 39 accidents. On the corresponding weekend in 1964, 20 lives were lost in 17 accidents.

DO YOU HAVE WHAT IT TAKES TO BE A LEADER?*

*If you do, don't settle for less.

If you will complete your first two years of college this spring and have not had ROTC training, you now have a special opportunity to earn an Army officer's commission in the next two years. You can qualify to fulfill your military obligation as an officer while you study for a college degree in a field of your choice.

Through a new two-year Army ROTC program you will receive leadership training and experience that will be valuable assets for the rest of your life, in either a military or a civilian career. You will receive an allowance of $40 each month during your Junior and Senior years. If you desire, you may request postponement of your military service while you complete your studies for a graduate degree.

Most large business and industrial firms prefer the college graduate who has been trained and commissioned as an officer—who has the ability to organize, motivate and lead others—and who has had experience in accepting responsibilities beyond his years.

You owe it to yourself to investigate this important opportunity.

For complete information on the new two-year Army ROTC program see the Professor of Military Science on campus.

Esquire's CLUB & CAMPUS FASHIONS

By CHIP TOLBERT
ESQUIRE'S FASHION EDITOR

THE MODS OF LONDON have been responsible for many of the most radical and exciting fashion ideas in recent memory. At the outset, however, let's make it clear that virtually none of these fashions are presently being worn on American campuses. Yet in fashion as in everything else, from extremes emerge the means, and there's no doubt that modified versions of many of these innovations will catch on and be counted among the best college market sellers in the near future. In any case, we thought you'd be interested in hearing about what's happening right now on the London fashion scene, as well as what's being done in Mod fashions in America.

"SEE YOU IN CARNABY" is the in-phrase among London's way-out swingers these days. Almost overnight, Carnaby Street, located in London's fashionable West End, has become the center and the source of what the Mods refer to as their "instant fashions." It's an amusing paradox that Carnaby is located a mere 200 yards from Savile Row, long recognized as headquarters for London's most distinguished and conservative tailoring establishments. Who shops Carnaby? Only the Dave Clark Five, The Rolling Stones, The Animals, four young men named John, George, Paul and Ringo, and a fifth who used to be known around town as Anthony Armstrong-Jones. And what do they, and thousands of their fans and followers, buy there? Some pretty surprising fashions . . .

THE MOD TUXEDO, for a start, offers plenty of surprises. Cut tight and skinny, it features a 3 or 4-button jacket, high, narrow lapels, very deep side vents, satin belt loops, cuffs, and a wide satin belt. The trousers are tapered in extremis, and the outfit may be worn with black demi-boots. Accessories are radical, if not outrageous: frills on the cuffs and front of the shirt, plus a very wide bow tie.

THE MOD MODE, in all apparel areas, is characterized by certain definite trends. The wardrobe is form-fitted, and anything smacking of standardized fashions is "automatically out." The plumage on the male bird is getting brighter and snappier, and there's no doubt that it's getting harder all the time to tell the boys apart from the girls. Prices are comparatively high: slacks run anywhere from $15. to $25.

Lines are fluid, and we frequently find strong surface interest in a rich variety of textured fabrics. In slacks, the low-rise, hip-hugging model is in. Belts run as wide as three inches, and many of them are colorfully striped.

MODISM MOVES ON: here are some more "musts" in the fashion-conscious Mod's wardrobe. A camel suede overshirt with seamed pockets and shoulders, usually worn with slacks tapered to the knee, then flared out to bell bottom cuffs. A pair of giant black-and-white houndstooth check trousers, worn as low as possible. Ticking-striped low-rise jeans worn with a matching snap-front jacket. A rugged blue denim shirt with a high-rise collar and cuffs of white broadcloth. A fancy soft leather vest. The Mod Suit which doubles as a sports ensemble merely by unbuttoning the suit collar and replacing it with a dark collar. And maybe even a black vinyl, double-breasted jacket with slanting side pockets and patch breast pocket.

SHIRTING THE MOD usually involves wild prints and even wilder color ideas. Take, for example, the black daisy shirt, a lightweight cotton print that also comes in red, purple—the whole spectrum, in fact—on a white background. The reverse-print tie is sold along with the shirt; collars are high-rise, and both cuffs and collars are white. Way out? On my recent trip to London, I was assured that it's one of the current best-sellers! And it's now being sold in a few shops across America.

MOD-ORIENTED SWEATERS are among the first fashions to be adopted in this country. Bulky-knit mohairs are popular. Vivid stripes on the sleeves are sometimes repeated on the extra high turtlenecks. The scarf sweater incorporates school colors in an attached panel that wraps around the neck and hangs down in front and back. In any case, the Mod idea is catching on fast. Retailers from Minneapolis to Manhattan are clamoring for Mod fashions. Peacoats, white bell bottoms, the wider use of suede and corduroy: all these recent innovations can be partially attributed to London's Mods. Who can say what will come next? The wider paisley and polka dot ties are already fashion staples! Dramatic changes lie ahead.

Good Grooming Makes Good Sense

Few things really change with time. Will Shakespeare once concluded, "The apparel oft proclaims the man." More than three hundred years later a University of California educator, Dr. Leslie J. Nason, explained, "Children tend to act out the parts for which they are dressed. Boys who let their hair grow and wear dirty jeans are too often disciplinary problems...Clothes affect grades."

The National Institute of Drycleaning, sponsors of Good Grooming Week April 24-30, will simplify the age-old argument against poor taste with the simple, but effective, slogan "Good Grooming Makes Good Sense."

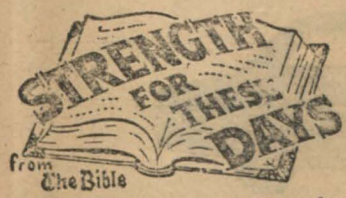

Posters, ribbons, special radio/TV material, best dressed contests and high school good grooming essay contests will all be part of a two-barreled attack by the drycleaners on bearded, mopy haired demonstrators and their associates.

This will be the fourth year that the cleaners have sponsored Good Grooming Week. In past years local drycleaners have obtained the cooperation of clothing stores, beauty salons, civic officials, and most important... secondary schools.

GIVE WARDROBE A BREAK

Do not wear the same garment day after day, advises the National Institute of Drycleaning. By alternating the garments you wear, you give the fabric a chance to become free of wrinkles and to return to the shape built in to the garment.

Electric power generation has been doubling about every ten years — a rate of growth more than two times that of the Gross National Product. In 1965, a total electric energy production in the United States was more than 1.15 trillion kilowatt-hours.

Giving thanks always for all things—(Eph. 5:20)

A child can be taught to say "thank you," for what is done for him, but to learn to be truly thankful is a lesson of the heart, of the spirit, of the whole man. Praise, appreciation, gratitude, blessings can change and transform the heart, heal the body, erase old hurts, bring joy to us all and give real meaning and beauty to every day. Let your first awakening thought be, "Thank you, God."

Club 26

"Out of the darkness of a 13'er into the light of a 26'er", yes it's true. No longer will the 13'ers cry out their usual chant of "Wonder when we're going off pro" and "When can we wear the Black and White with heels" for they are now truly 26'ers. The 13'ers life as a 13'er has ended and probation is finally out and behind. In the future lies the Black and White Ball and unbelievable fun events.

As the tell-tale signs of spring begin to burst out all over — so will the activity agenda for the members of Club 26. Inasmuch as the Black and White Ball of 1965 is the only criteria the 26'ers have to plan for this ball by, elaborate plans are in the making for the most of the happenings; and the better of the best, the 1966 Black and White Ball!! (Try your best to come).

Mid-term has come and gone and Club 26 knows that all of Pantherland has made all As. But if, when the grades are out, you find that we were a little wrong plan to put in more time doing a little more concrete studying.

College Science Club

The College Science Club was started in October, 1965, by sponsors from the Science Department. The Club is an academic one, and its objectives are to establish initiative in students and to bring wholesome recreation.

The College Science Club has sponsored a Turkey Raffle and an academic contest in which the prize was $15.00, and the coveted title of Miss College Science. A dance was given in Miss College Science Club's honor, and she was escorted by Mr. Morris Bailey II.

Future activities of the club include a field trip, a dance, and possibly another contest. The president of the club and three other members will attend a meeting with one of their sponsors, Mr. R. E. Gibson to Stephen F. Austin College.

Officers of the club include: President, Jean McKnight; Vice President, Barbara Williams; Secretary, Martha Hall; and Treasurer, Melvin London. Sponsors are: Mr. R. E. Gibson, Mr. Woods, Mr. P. McCann, and Dr. E. W. Owens.

Phi Beta Lambda

The Epsilon Beta Chapter of Phi Beta Lambda Fraternity has initiated and accepted fifty-five new members and elected three new officers. The three fortunate new members who are coming in as officers are: Secretary, Van Dora Woods; Treasurer J. Carolyn Williams; and Reporter, Willie Wright Jr. These members were elected as a result of the lack of these officers due to student teaching.

The fifty-five members were inducted at the candle-light ceremonies on Monday night.

Thursday, March 3, 1966, the Fraternity's pledges started on their seventy-two-hour probation period, which ended Saturday, March 5, 1966. After initiation there was a "Welcome to the Frat" dance for all new members and their guest in the Memorial Center.

We hope that other Business Education and Administration majors and minors will be inspired by the induction of these new members and by the activities that will be executed by the Fraternity this year.

Dallas-PV Club

The Dallas PV Club members would like to thank all of you who worked so diligently with us in making our recent dance as successful as it was.

It is, however, too bad that there are always those students who, through foolish antics, cause others to suffer. I am, of course, speaking in reference to the incidents that occurred the night of the dance. We highly regret that these incidents occurred, and has had defamatory effects against our name as an organization.

It is ironical that society today seems to want to place the blame of a group of individuals rather than on that particular individual who committed the act. Since we are from the same area and share the same birthplace is grounds enough for them to say "they are responsible," instead of, "he" is responsible. This is quite an injustice. Although, we feel allied with anyone from Dallas, we, nevertheless, are distinct and separate persons. We cannot be held responsible for every individual who comes to PV from Dallas, nor can we be held responsible for the delinquency of those who attend our social functions. We feel that each student here is considered an adult, and should be able to conduct himself accordingly.

Again, we the Dallas PV Club would like to express regret for the incidents that occurred, and we would like to thank those of you who were present whose conduct was in keeping with the characteristics of young college men and women.

LBL Talk

Cheers, Cheers and more cheers to all of the former pledges who have now become members of the various campus clubs. While on observation we are sure all of you were looking forward to what is now a life-long membership. And here we are!

Our Neophytes have made a very good, and lasting impression due to the efforts the Dean of Pledges and the Pledge Committee have instilled upon them.

We extend our best wishes to all the Neophytes, and we hope you will "style" your club colors and sweaters with the pride and dignity which they deserve.

The Father... doeth his works—(John 14:10)

We often work too hard at bringing this to pass because we believe it is up to us, that the outcome is entirely dependent on our personal efforts. But Jesus said, "The Father abiding in me doeth his works." We need to work from a spiritual level, to work in the faith that God is with us. His power in us is mighty to do all things.
