MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY

Maxine Curvey is a junior in the college, one of the major attractions at the Snack Bar, next to the ice cream, and, therefore a member of the Prairie View Family. George Brown is the alert, bright-eyed, twelve-year-old, son of Mr. & Mrs. M. V. Brown, and his home is on the campus. A few days before the Dallas Fair Miss Curvey lost her pocketbook containing $26.00. Fortunately it was found by young George, who, with refreshing, faith-renewing, boyish candor, turned it in though it contained much more than he would earn delivering papers for two months. George's honesty, and good training at home make him eligible for senior membership in the Prairie View Family or any other group where people respect one another.

The Prairie View Family idea or concept becomes more a reality each time we help one another. Younger member George has pointed the way this year---as members of a good family let's follow his lead.
