YOUR WEEK

Scene II

The W. A. ...
Prairie View A. & M. College
Prairie View, Texas

Things We Like To Remember. The prairie as viewed from the large second-floor library window looking southward, on a sunny fall morning. Grasses and leaves all brown and green, and the good earth showing a dried creek bed here, a hillock there. Beauty enough to please the eye of a Marin or excite the descriptive powers of a Thoreau. The only dissonance in nature's unlaboured, elegant tonescape being man's straight-lined architecture. Not that we don't like man and his works, but that our telephone lines, posts and fences are, naturally enough, without symetry. . . Music, which seems to be the soul of creation, has fared much better at the hand of man. Last Sunday morning, music for chapel was presented by the Women's Choir. The young girls, under direction of the Music Department's able Ella Cullins, sang a most sensitive and telling interpretation of "Somebody's Knocking." Hermoine Goins performance at the organ was flawless, and browneyed Helen Pierson's violin never wavered. How fortunate can an audience be??? . . . The cozy conviviality at the college cafeteria breakfast tables each morning. One may hear learned discourses on dominoes by Cleaning and Pressing's Bob Rayford and Herman G Washington, State Reader W C David and the Shoe Shop's L R McNeely. . . ROTC's Jafus P Cavil and Lumbering's Samuel R Collins neatly needling Coaches Billy Nicks and Vernon Wells. . . pretty Kay Francis' unhurried, becalmed papa, Marcellus Harmon, deftly sprinkling salt in his coffee. . . Registrar's assistant B B Brooks breakfasting blithely. . . prairie View's Miss prairie View whose good points may appear soon on the cover of picture magazine. . . The mixed emotions, expressed wordlessly, as students' received grades Friday morning. . . Such is the Scene, as seen . . .
