Outstanding Educator to Keynote 11th Annual English Institute

Dr. William A. Jenkins will keynote English Conference

Dr. William A. Jenkins, editor of Elementary English and associate dean and director of Teacher Education at the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee, will deliver the keynote address at the 11th annual session of the English-Language Arts Institute scheduled on March 7, at Prairie View A&M College.

Active in the National Council of Teachers of English, Dr. Jenkins has done considerable work in the area of Children's Literature and is a contributing editor and author with the Education Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey.

The theme of the one-day institute is "Working Together to improve English-Language Arts teachers."

Other speakers and consultants for the institute are Dr. Joseph Doggett, chairman of the department of English at the University of Houston; Dr. Lee Martin, professor of English at Texas A. & M. University and Mrs. Elizabeth Ott, Elementary section, Texas Education Agency, Austin, Texas.

Discussion in two sectional meetings will center around the topics — Basic attainments for the high school English program, and basic attainments desirable for the language arts program. Problems of play production will be discussed by Miss Erma Waddy and aspects of coaching debate teams by Horace J. Bond, both members of the English faculty at the college.

Clinic for High School Reporters Set for April 10-11

Miss Texas High Date Set

A High School Reporters Conference has been scheduled for April 10-11 at the college which is being held in connection with the annual MISS TEXAS HIGH promotion.

The Student Press Club has announced the April dates for both events.

Students who serve as reporters, editors and in various capacities on the high school paper, radio or yearbook as well as those interested in learning about reporting are invited to attend the meeting. Outstanding newsmen, radio and TV personnel and teachers will serve as speakers and resource persons.

Conference participants will be special guests at several MISS TEXAS HIGH activities, including the talent revue, style show, a dance featuring outstanding guest artists and a pageant. The closing pageant will feature presentations of all contestants, all the campus queens at Prairie View, and the awards.

Radio Station KYOK-Houston will award a $350 cash scholarship to the 1964 winner of the contest. Other awards include a smaller scholarship, trophies and prizes for the winner and runners-up.

Schools interested in participating in one or both events should write the Student Press Club at Prairie View A&M College.

Operation "Bright Star" Aims At Developing Student Leadership

Realizing the necessity for competent student leaders and realizing that the Reserve Officers Training Corps program is one of the finest means available for training and obtaining the student leaders, Dr. E. B. Evans, President of Prairie View A&M College, announced the launching of "Operation Bright Star".

The purpose of this program is to afford greater prestige to the Advance Course cadets and to offer incentives to the Basic Course cadets that will motivate them to aspiring to become a member of the Advance Course and a student leader. Dr. Evans stated that "The ROTC is the finest organization we have on our campus. It has instilled in our young men value concepts in team and group loyalty and performance. It has taught and provided leadership experiences,

Jack-Jill Sponsors Mental Health Program

The Prairie View Chapter of Jack and Jill of America Inc. has pledged to support the National Association for Mental Health in accordance with other Jack and Jill chapters in America.

The Jack and Jill mothers need your support and cooperation to make this year's N.A.M.H. drive successful and worthwhile.

Facts: At least 1 person in every 10 (90,000,000 people in all) have some form of mental or emotional illness (from mild to severe) that needs psychiatric treatment. Mental illness is known to be an important factor in many physical illnesses, even heart disease and tuberculosis. At least 50% of all medical and surgical cases treated by private doctors and hospitals have a mental illness complication.

Peace Corps Test Set for Saturday

The Peace Corps Placement Test will be administered on the Prairie View College campus for those who are interested in entering the Peace Corps. There are over 7,000 Peace Corps Volunteers now at work in 46 countries in Latin America, Africa and Asia. About 5,000 more will go into training this summer. Among them will be teachers, liberal arts graduates, engineers, nurses, doctors, sociologists, and recreation workers. In all, Volunteers come from some 300 skill backgrounds.

Married couples are eligible if both can serve and have no dependent children. A college degree is not necessary in all projects. Volunteers receive various training and experience as they help the peoples of emerging nations fight poverty, disease, ignorance and hunger. If anyone is interested in sharing his skills in villages and cities, classrooms and hospitals and on

Know Your Commander Cadet Colonel Holsome

"...and as the years passed, I began to look at school in a different light. It meant more than just a place to go. If success was to come my way and prevail, I would surely have to embark on some worthwhile attainable goals."

This is a summation of Cadet Colonel Welton C. Holsome's attitude, or changing attitude, as he briefly related it during a recent interview. Undoubtedly this change in attitude contributes directly to his ascension to the rank of Cadet Colonel and assignment as Prairie View's ROTC Brigade Commander, one of the top student leadership positions on Prairie View's campus.

Cadet Holsome, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Holsome of Jacksonville, Texas, is a 1960 graduate of Frederick Douglas High School in Jacksonville. As a standout athlete, he was a three year letterman on his High School basketball team and Captain of the team in his senior year. He was awarded the Outstanding Athlete Trophy for 1959-60. His apparent leadership ability was a major factor in his election to President of the Student Council and Vice President of the Senior Class.

Realizing that graduation from high school was only an intermediate goal, Cadet Holsome had decided many months prior to graduation to further his education at Prairie View. As a freshman cadet, he admits his thoughts were very vague on entering the Advance Cadet Corps. During his sophomore year he was "sold on the idea of acquiring a commission as well as a degree". He was promoted to Sergeant and a position that gave him an opportunity to influence and direct the actions of other cadets and further develop his leadership ability.

Cadet Holsome was accepted into the Advanced Corps based on his academic and leadership

Pershing Rifles Concentrate On Skillful Marching, Mastery Of Arms Throughout the Year

Once again the guidon of Pershing Rifles is flying with the grace and skill required to keep it the "all time campus favorite." Concentration has been placed on skillful marching and complete mastery of the manual of arms throughout the school year. However, the organization is capable of and involved in many other campus activities, social, recreational and educational affairs. When the men of P/R are together on drill field, in the classroom or any gathering place, the effort to gain control and harness excellency remains.

The concerted effort to improve our regularly scheduled meetings is quite apparent. Cadets Ronnie Wheeler, Albert Holloway and George Francis are credited with presenting timely, educational and interesting programs during our first three meetings of this semester. The trend for all future meetings is to stimulate greater interest and participation by all members of the organization.

Along the social route, P/R presented its annual Initiation Banquet and Dance Friday Night, February 7, 1964. We were highly honored by the presence of Dr. E. B. Evans at the banquet. Dr. George Stafford, guest speaker for the occasion, challenged the men of Pershing Rifles to "stand tall and toe the mark". After the banquet, the men of P/R and their ladies danced to popular tunes in the Ballroom of the Memorial Center. Needless to say, the Queen of the Ball was our own Miss Bernadette Mosby, Miss Pershing Rifles.

On Sunday, February 23, 1964, P/R will sponsor the Annual ROTC Church Day Program at 11:00 p.m. in the Aud-Gym. Guest speaker will be Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Orville A. Lorenz, Headquarters VIII US Army Corps, Austin, Texas. The theme will be "Religion record and the RQ entrance examination. At the end of a very successful junior year initially as commander of the ROTC Band and later of Company E, Cadet Holsome was awarded the Superior Cadet Ribbon as the outstanding Junior cadet.

The 1963 Summer Camp at Fort Sill, Oklahoma proved to be a rugged, challenging, and most successful six weeks to Cadet Holsome. He was rated number two in his platoon and number four in his company. It should be noted that this rating included students from forty-three colleges and universities in five states. An evaluation of his performance at camp and his achievements during his three years at Prairie View placed Cadet Colonel Holsome in the top position in the six hundred and seventy-five man Cadet Brigade.

The Spacemobile is equipped to provide an excellent presentation of the nation's space program for peaceful purposes. Space-science principles are graphically demonstrated by the use of excellent visual aids and experiments.

Bill Pickens wanted rewarding work

He got it at Western Electric

William Pickens, B.A., University of Vermont, '58, chose Western Electric because of the wide scope of opportunities open to him in his chosen field.

As a Personnel Practices Associate, Bill helps administer Western Electric's Tuition Refund Plan and other personnel matters, including employee benefits and industrial defense planning. Bill has also written an economics course for WE installers and conducts health and safety meetings.

Bill is taking advantage of the Company's Tuition Refund Plan by studying for his Master's Degree at N.Y.U.'s evening school and appreciates the opportunity to advance his career through the numerous management courses available. He knows, too, that we'll need to fill thousands of supervisory positions within the next few years.

And Bill is getting the solid experience he needs to qualify. He's sure that Western Electric is the right place for him. What about you?

If you set the highest standards for yourself, enjoy a challenge and have the qualifications we're looking for—we want to talk to you! Opportunities for fast-moving careers exist now for liberal arts, physical science, and business majors, as well as for electrical, mechanical and industrial engineers. For more detailed information, get your copy of the Western Electric Career Opportunities booklet from your Placement Officer. Or write: Western Electric Company, Room 6405, 222 Broadway, New York 38, New York. And be sure to arrange for a personal interview when the Bell System recruiting team visits your campus.

A Welcome to High School Students

The students of Prairie View extend a warm welcome to the hundreds of high school students and teachers here this weekend and next week also for the state basketball tournaments.

It is always a pleasure to have these students visit the campus. We hope you will notice the big field house going up. This is wher the state tournaments will be played next year.

Help Push the Band Fund Drive

Good news comes from the Alumni office about real progress in the drive to secure uniforms for the marching 120. Several individuals have purchased a uniform ($110 each) and many others are pledging to do so. The goal is of course, 120 uniforms.

It will take the best effort of all the PV family to make this goal possible. The Alumni is taking the lead. It's time now for the students and faculty to get with the act.

Integration Problems at Rice

Many strange things happen where whites and Negroes are concerned. We aren't surprised too much at the peculiar court proceedings in the suit by Rice University to integrate and change tuition.

According to news accounts, the judge tells the lawyers not to mention the fact that the school was originally established for inhabitants of Houston and Texas. Rice already has students from many states and foreign countries. The founder also stipulated that the school should be for whites only. Yet Rice has students of many races, and colors, except American born Negroes.

Such hocus-pocus by intelligent people is hard to fathom. But at least in this instance the purpose is to right a long-standing wrong, and we are glad of it.

Editor's Scratch Pad

Observed somewhere in the Education building is the following: "Great minds discuss ideas. Average minds discuss events. Small minds discuss people." What do you discuss?...

The showcase in the Memorial Center is now graced with displays of our social clubs on campus. Very artistically arranged are the shields or emblems, sweaters, and pictures of sweethearts of the various clubs. Clubs Crescendo, 26, Barons of Innovation, Kappa Omega Beta, Les Beaux Arts, Les Belles Lettres, and Panthers, you are to be congratulated and complimented for your excellent endeavor....

Beginning this week end, just about every week end on out to the end of the semester we will have visitors on our campus. Decide now what kind of image we here at Prairie View are going to project to people from all areas of the state and maybe some out-of-state visitors. A favorable image is the one that should be projected. Will it or won't it??...

The members of the Panther Staff wholly endorse the Project Birmingham. We recommend that every true citizen of America here at Prairie View augment this very much worthwhile endeavor....

Is chivalry becoming extinct? An incident that happened between three pledge club groups provoke thought on the possibility that culture may be assuming a new meaning here on campus which may be detrimental to most club policies....

Construction work on our new Health and Physical Education facilities is coming along quite well. Now it would be good to see Minor Hall, Anderson Hall, Blackshear Hall, Crawford Hall, Lucky Hall, Science Annex, NYA No. 2 and Na. 3, replaced with ultra modern structures. Maybe this will be done in a matter of time....

What is Important?

There is little satisfaction to be gained from doing things that hold no difficulties; its the tough old task that brings a keen sense of worth and power to the man who wins the fight. His failures test his courage and his problems prove his might. Until a man has conquered loss, and overcome defeat, he cannot fully understand just why success is sweet. Many have designated themselves to be thankful for their disappointments, for their battles lost; and for their mistakes that seem to have charged an overwhelming cost. They're thankful for the days of doubt, when it is hard to see that all things work together for the good that is to be. They are thankful for all that life has brought, because today they know that men must brave adversities, if they would greater grow.

sic and academic intelligensia perform excellently is an explicit example of false or psuedo pride. You who criticize must have some remedies for improvement or your bold, derogatory remarks have no affect.

Talk is all many are able to do. Talk may be the epitome of an individual's abilities. But ACTION, ah action — the process of actually contributing something worthful is what counts. No action, talk only policians have no basis for their say so. But the active people have a clear definite purpose—the advancement academically, socially, and politically of their alma mater. Are you guilty of NATO?

NATO Symbolizes No Action, Talk Only

Generally, the letters NATO symbolize the internationally known North Atlantic Treaty Organization which originates from the United Nations. Here at Prairie View, however, the letters seem to assume an entirely different connotation. They may be termed to represent NO ACTION, TALK ONLY.

Much, much, much talk about the widely varied conditions which prevail our campus is constantly heard. But no actions toward improving the conditions are ever initiated by those who talk.

Granted, some of our facilities, buildings, and resource materials are considerably condemnably outdated. And of course modern structures on Prairie View's campus may be counted on one hand. Prairie View is in the prairies located approximately forty-five miles from a metropolitan area. Maybe the previously mentioned will suffice for con statements. All of the aforementioned situations definitely can't be helped by being talked about!

Have you ever heard of "Put your money where your mouth is" and/or "Put up or shut up"? What about these well used phrases? They work very well in a business-type world. Maybe their principle can be utilized in a socially influenced situation also.

New Sons of Paradise

On the horizon of this generation's life the doors of freedom are swinging open. Now, we too, may thrive and flourish in the richness of the true American heritage as any son of, "The Land of the Free."

We shall prosper, not so much by our efforts demanding freedom, (for fredom is much desired, and has long before been sought for), but by the faith of our forefathers whose voices echo in the glory of the country, whose prayers ascended to the heart of God, and whose dreams are becoming realities in our lives.

This day shall be recipients of the true American heritage, which we must approve ourselves worthy of. Through institutional, spiritual, mitral and moral development we may prove to be the better Sons of Paradise.

Status is as Status Does

by Mamie Hughes

What are the symbols of status on this campus? How do you get to be known? How do you get to be a big wheel? How do you let your peer know that you are alive?

The need for status is an essential need of every human being, so says psychologists, and I am prone to believe them. Every one of us strives for it in one way or another at one time or another. The method that each of us employs to obtain this most essential need, whether defficacious or efficacious, most often they dictate their actions by which we are judged.

Now in observing the acclamation for status on the campus I have observed that there are several methods used for this aspiration. Some few try through admirable scholastic achievement, others through social clubs and extra curricular activities and still others (too many for the healthy social well being of the campus) aspire to gain social status by cut standing, vile profanity, excessive loudness and other percaicious behavior whereas they stand out from the regular cut and dry run-of things. Unfortunately what these ill-fated aspirants do not know is that what they achieve from that peers is not admirable approval or recognition but reproach.

At this point I am reminded of a scene that I happened to observe about a week or so ago while on my way home from the library. A group of male students (I do not refer to them as young men for obvious reasons as you will see) were standing in seemingly one of their favorite spots — the front of the old post office. One of them, a person of about 5 ft. 10 in. wearing a jersey with the number 12 across the front, was busily engaged in jumping up and down on a piece of tin covering the side walk making an enormous amount of noise. About this time another fellow came by, looked at him with an air of reproof and said in a rather loud voice, "If you want someone to know you —, why don't you write your name across your chest? At that the jersey clad person stopped and pointed to the number on the jersey. To this gesture the other answered, "I said your name, not your age."

"Stimulation and Academic excellency is the goal." The fact that the farmer, through scientific principles and acquired skills, feeds and largely clothes the world makes agriculture basic to the existence of the human race. Striking advance has been made in recent years in the field of synthetic chemistry, and a large variety of organic substances have been compounded in the laboratory, some of which have proven important in commercial channels. Our department places high emphasis in the field of Agro-chemistry. Several students, under the direction of Dr. Rosco Lewis, are working whole-heartedly with organic chemistry and other bio-chemical problems and their usefulness to mankind. The domestic fowl provides useful results in these timely projects. Enumerous efforts are stressed in recruiting students. Interest in other fields of chemical agriculture, to prove that this phase of study is open to qualified individuals, is also being injected into the studies.

A scholarship fund is now being provided to the students that have shown high academic advancement in the school of Agriculture. Two students will receive this award. They are chosen as the top ranking freshman student and the senior with the highest number of academic ratings, studying in the field of Agriculture.

The farmers and advisors of this wonderful step towards higher achievements are Dr. Norris, Mr. Powells, the chapters President R. K. Watkins, and its treasurer Delbert Jefferson. They are in hopes that "the honor should always exceed the prize."

The freshman to receive the scholarship award was Otis Evans. He has shown tremendous efforts to achieve in his phase of studies and we are in hopes that this award will be an inspiration for continuation for even a longer period for other freshman students.

The senior grant honor was awarded to John Terry, now doing his student teaching at Brenham, Texas. He has shown exceptional efforts in his phase of academic achievements throughout his stay at the college. He is also a distinguished student of the Advanced ROTC Program.

These students must both be active in the collegiate N. F. A.'s organization and other constructive functions on campus.

The collegiate chapter's Dinner Dance will be held in this month. It had been planned to offset all of the previous functions ever held.

ROTC Form Counterquerrilla Unit

A new unit has been added to the Department of Military Science. This unit is similar to present departmental organizations: Company H, Scabbard and Blade, Company Q, 17th Regiment, National Society of Pershing Rifles, and the Association of the United States Army, in that it provides extra curricula activities and development for selected members of the Cadet Corps. The proposed name of the unit is "The Hamilton - Fearing Counterquerrilla Company". This title reflects tribute to Colonel (Retired) West A. Hamilton, the first senior division Professor of Military Science and a great contributor to the ROTC unit at Prairie View A&M College, and Lieutenant Colonel Arthur N. Fearing, our present Professor of Military Science.

Objectives of the unit are as follows:

- a. Provide the junior cadet with preparatory training for Summer Camp.
- b. Familiarize the cadet with counterquerrilla operations.
- c. Improve the physical condition of the student and his ability to operate and survive under adverse conditions.
- d. Develop an interest in counterquerrilla training among college students, the local people, and the populace at large.
- e. Develop and reflect favorable publicity on the ROTC program, the institution, and the US Army.
- f. Motivate the non-ROTC student towards entering the

Houston Police Dept. Lists Ten Easy Rules For Raising Delinquents

submitted by
Tommy Richardson

1. Begin at infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way he will grow up to believe the world owes him a living.
2. When he picks up bad words, laugh at him. This will make him think he's cute.
3. Never give him any spiritual training. Wait until he is 21, and then let him "decide for himself."
4. Pick up everything he leaves lying around — books, shoes, clothes. Do everything for him so that he will be experienced in throwing responsibility on others.
5. Quarrel frequently in his presence. In this way he will not be too shocked when the home is broken later.
6. Give a child all the spending money he wants. Never let him earn his own. Why should he have things as tough as you had them?
7. Satisfy his every craving for food, drink and comfort. Denial may lead to harmful frustrations.
8. Take his part against neighbors, teachers, policemen. They are all prejudiced against your child.
9. When he gets into real trouble, apologize for yourself by saying "I never could do anything with him."
10. Prepare for a life of grief. You are bound to have it.

Nurses' Notes

For the first time in almost two decades students enrolled on all four levels of nursing (freshman, sophomore, junior and seniors) are now being housed on the college campus. Previously, second semester sophomores and the junior students were housed in Houston near the Jefferson Davis Hospital where our school affiliated at that time.

However, in June, 1963 the new hospital to replace Jefferson Davis Hospital was completed. It is located in the Medical Center in Houston and was named Ben Taub General Hospital. The Center does not include housing accommodations for student nurses.

The move to the campus came in September, 1963. It has afforded the Junior students opportunities to take liberal arts courses concurrently with their major nurse courses. Also, these individuals can participate in activities of the college and become a more integral part of the collegiate atmosphere.

Recently the juniors were joined by the sophomores who began their Fundamentals of Nursing course this semester.

Mr. Peters Receives Army Medals

The quietest and most unassuming man at Prairie View turns out to be a war hero.

Sam Peters, Sr., reference assistance in the W. R. Banks Library, recently received five medals and appurtenances for excellent performance of his patriotic duties for 3½ years in the U. S. Armed Forces.

The awards included a Good Conduct Medal, American Campaign Medal, Asiatic-Pacific Campaign medal-Bronze Service Star (4 each) and the World War II Victory medal.

A native of Bay City, Mr. Peters received the bachelor of science degree in business administration at Prairie View in 1953. He also has a certificate in Tailoring. He has been an employee at the college since 1953. He has a son who is expected to enroll at Prairie View in September.

It has taught and instilled in our young men the value of time, love of country and patriotism."

"I could go on extolling the virtues of the ROTC on our campus, but let it be known that there is no finer training and experiences for our young men. It is for this reason that we continue to require all able-bodied undergraduate male students to pursue the Basic Course ROTC program during their first two years. The leadership instilled in these young men will be an asset to the college and to the community receiving their services upon graduation."

Some of the eminent prestige factors of "Operation Bright Star" are:

- a. The awarding of $100.00 Scholarship to the ROTC student attaining the highest cumulative academic average at the end of his junior year.
- b. The Advance Course cadets will be considered for filling the prestige type departmental jobs on campus.
- c. Registration of the Advance Course cadets prior to the regularly scheduled registration periods, thereby enabling these leaders to be employed during the registration periods.
- d. The purchase of text books from the College Exchange at predesignated times.
- e. The Advance Course cadets will be permitted to attend selected off-campus football games as representatives of the college.
- f. An annual Tea or lawn party will be given at the home of the College President for the Senior cadets and their ladies.
- g. Advance Course cadets meeting all criteria established for other students by the college and whose application is approved by the PMS, will be given priority on student loans.
- h. The Advance Course cadets and their ladies will be fed

EVOL SPELLED BACKWARDS IS LOVE

They met. His heart leapt. "I love you!" he cried.
 "Me too, hey!" she cried.
 "Tell me," he cried, "are you a girl of expensive tastes?"
 "No, hey," she cried. "I am a girl of simple tastes."
 "Good," he cried, "for my cruel father sends me an allowance barely large enough to support life."
 "Money does not matter to me," she cried. "My tastes are simple; my wants are few. Just take me riding in a long, new, yellow convertible and I am content."
 "Goodbye," he cried, and ran away as fast as his little stumpy legs would carry him, for he had no yellow convertible, nor the money to buy one, nor the means to get the money—short of picking up his stingy father by the ankles and shaking him till his wallet fell out.

"I am clean and fresh and relaxing," she admitted

He knew he must forget this girl, but lying on his pallet at the dormitory, whimpering and moaning, he knew he could not.

At last an idea came to him: though he did not have the money to buy a convertible, perhaps he had enough to rent one!

Hope reborn, he rushed on his little stumpy legs (curious to tell, he was six feet tall, but all his life he suffered from little stumpy legs) he rushed, I say, to an automobile rental company and rented a yellow convertible for $10 down plus ten cents a mile. Then, with many a laugh and cheer, he drove away to pick up the girl.

"Oh, bully!" she cried when she saw the car. "This suits my simple tastes to a T. Come, let us speed over rolling hills and through bosky dells."

Away they drove. All that day and night they drove and finally, tired but happy, they parked high on a wind-swept hill.

"Marlboro?" he said.

"Yum, yum," she said.

They lit their Marlboros. They puffed with deep contentment. "You know," he said, "you are like a Marlboro—clean and fresh and relaxing."

"Yes, I am clean and fresh and relaxing," she admitted. "But, all the same, there is a big difference between Marlboros and me, because I do not have an efficacious white Selectrate filter."

They laughed. They kissed. He screamed.

"What is it, hey?" she asked, her attention aroused.

"Look at the speedometer," he said. "We have driven 200 miles, and this car costs ten cents a mile, and I have only $20 left."

"But that is exactly enough," she said.

"Yes," he said, "but we still have to drive home."

"Oh," she said. They fell into a profound gloom. He started the motor and backed out of the parking place.

"Hey, look!" she cried. "The speedometer doesn't move when you are backing up."

He looked. It was true. "Eureka!" he cried. "That solves my problem. I will drive home in reverse. Then no more miles will register on the speedometer and I will have enough money to pay!"

"I think that is a smashing idea," she said; and she was right. Because today our hero is in the county jail where food, clothing, and lodging are provided free of charge, and his allowance is piling up so fast that in two or three years he will have enough money to take his girl riding again.

The ABC's of Discipleship

by Howard E. Butt, Jr.
 Since I have quit "trying" to lead a Christian life, I have realized that Christian witnessing is not something we do, it is something we are. It is a quality of life, but it is not ours. So life becomes a matter of walking with Christ and in Christ, allowing his nature to be poured through the conduit of our lives. Paul writes in Ephesians 2:10, "We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them." Why did not Paul say that God has ordained that we should do good works? That's what most of us are trying to do in our own strength. But God's Word does not say it because that is not what we are supposed to do. We are to walk in the good works which Jesus Christ has ordained for us. How exciting this makes every fresh morning. You wake up and think, "Well, I wonder what great things God is going to do today!" Because he is, each day is wonderful; it is even fun. Have you come to that place where you can say, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me"? Have you? I don't mean sentimentally, I mean really. For he has come that we might have life, and that life is Jesus Christ our Lord. (excerpt from The ABC'S of Discipleship)

Well Spoken . . .

Sir Flinders Petrie, Egyptologist: All my discoveries have confirmed my belief in the Bible as the Word of God.
David Livingston: God had an only son, and he was a missionary.
T. J. Bach: When a Christian is in the wrong place, his right place is empty.
Lord Kelvin: There is nothing in science which teaches the origin of anything at all.
Mary Slessor: I did not use to believe the story of Daniel in the lions' den until I had to take some of these awful marches (through the leopard forests of Nigeria). Then I knew it was true, and that it was written for my comfort.
Henry Martyn (in his diary):

Resolved, never to reprove another except I experience at the same time a peculiar contrition of heart.
Matthew Henry: The woman was formed out of man — not out of his head to rule over him; not out of his feet to be trod upon by him; but out of his side to be his equal, from beneath his arm to be protected, and from near his heart to be loved.
Martin Luther: None can believe how powerful prayer is, and what it is able to effect, but those who have learned it by experience.
Robert C. McQuilkin: It is suffering and then glory. Not to have the suffering means not to have the glory.

An Alabaman's Great Speech Lays the Blame

Behind the stark white patches Sarah Jean Collins's 12 year old world is dark and hopeless. A bomb set off by a racist in the basement of a Birmingham Negro church seared her eyes and killed her sister. Three other girls, the oldest 14, died in the bombing, and Sarah Jean may never see again. It was a sickening expression of racial hatred, a horrible extension of the irresponsibility of Alabama's Governor George Wallace. The Negro community controlled its fury. But already talk was rising of violent retaliation.

The bombing brought a powerful condemnation from an unexpected source — a white Birmingham lawyer named Charles Morgan, Jr. Standing before a segregated meeting of the Young Men's Business Club, Morgan declared:

Who did it? It's really rather simple. The "who" is every lit-and Dr. Betty R. Rudnick, Dean of the School of Nursing, University of Texas discussed their respective graduate programs with faculty and senior student nurses Monday, February 17, 1964.

Each discussed their program offering in terms of the curriculum leading to a Masters Degree.

M. N. Armstrong

A casualty of 1963's eruption of violence, 12-year-old Sarah Jean Collins lies blinded by a bomb exploded in a Birmingham, Ala. church. Four other young girls died in explosion.

tle individual who talks about the "niggers" and spreads the seeds of his hate to his neighbor and his son. The "who" is every governor who ever shouted for lawlessness and became a law violator. It is every senator and every representative who in the halls of Congress stands and with mock humility tells the world that things back home aren't really like they are. It is courts that move ever so slowly and newspapers that timorously defend the law. It is all the Christians and all their ministers who spoke too late in anguished cries against violence. It is the coward in each of us who clucks admonitions. We are 10 years of lawless preachments, 10 years of criticism of law, of courts, of our fellow man; a decade of telling schoolchildren the opposite of what the civics books say. We are a mass of intolerance and bigotry and stand indicted before our young. We are cursed by the failure of each of us to accept responsibility, by our defense of an already dead institution.

Who is really guilty? Each of us. Each citizen who has not consciously attempted to bring about peaceful compliance with the decisions of the Supreme Court; each citizen who has ever said, "They ought to kill that 'nigger'." Every person in this community who has in any way contributed to the popularity of hatred is at least as guilty, or more so, as the demented fool who threw that bomb. Life Magazine '63

Project Birmingham

In the year of Hell on Earth, 1963, one of the most brutal demonstrations of hatred ever conceived by an inhuman mind was performed. This act was the explosion of a bomb in, of all places, a Sunday School. And in that split second that snatched life from three precious children and the sight of an uncivilized world from a fourth, Project Birmingham was born.

Project Birmingham, the brainchild of the ultramodest Oliver Brown is an attempt to raise money for the destroyed Sunday School. It is an attempt to aid in the rebuilding of faith in Man's humanity to Man. It is an attempt to lend that all but forgotten helping hand.

A schedule of fund raising activities sponsored by the Sunday School of Prairie View A. & M. College will be initiated to facilitate the objectives. The schedule consists of the following: Movies and a dance to solicit funds.

Contributions and co-operation in the effort will be greatly appreciated. For more information write: Project Birmingham, c/o The Sunday School, Prairie View A. & M. College, Prairie View, Texas.

Currently the order of popularity of our canine friends is: French poodle, beagle, Chihuahuas, dachshund, German Shepherd and Pekingese.

Orchids and Onions

Hey pals! What's to it? How's the groove and all that jazz. Well, we guess this old month is just about to leave us. But aha, we still have one more chance to do our bi-monthly stunt. WATCH!!!

ONIONS: Starting off with onions (big yellow ones) to you who during our home games would not go to the basketball games and support our team.

ONIONS: Oh yes, more juicy onions to you who had the audacity to attend the past socials after the games after not attending the games. Shame on you!

ONIONS: To the gym for being so little.

ORCHIDS: Many orchids to the newly made members of the Panther Club. Congratulations.

ORCHIDS: To you guys who gave those deserving gals that valentine candy. You're too "boss".

ONIONS: Many fresh onions to you cheapskates who didn't give any candy to anyone!

ORCHIDS: Many orchids to

PV Platters

Hot discs are really popping all over the campus. These pop recording artists are something else!! They are just upsetting everybody with their most groovy records. Mr. Please, please himself is just too much with his disc of Baby Don't You Weep. Mr. BBB (Bobby "Blue" Bland) also has a new hit out. This guy has made it to Soulsville and isn't thinking about leaving no time soon either.

Inasmuch as the recording artists have favored us with their selections, let's see what the PV-ites enjoy most.

1. Baby Don't You Weep—James Brown and the Flames
2. I'm Leaving — Johnny Nash
3. UM, UM, UM, UM, UM, UM, UM — Major Lance
4. So Many Times — Leuvina Lewis
5. When You've Got a Heartache — Bobby Blue Bland
6. Lucky Ol' Sun—Ray "The Genius" Charles
7. Since I Found You — Maxine Brown
8. Need to Belong — Jerry Butler
9. I Wanna Hold Your Hand —The Beatles
10. Tobacco Road — Lou Rawls

Jazz-wise, anything by Hank Crawford strictly has soul. This guy's albums and singles are great by themselves and too hot to handle when they're together. Old times choice this week features Gene Allison and his ever wonderful disc of "Have Faith", popular in 1958 remember? The upcoming hit may just as well be Bob and Earl with the "Harlem Shuffle".

the Sunday School in their Project Birmingham endeavor.

ORCHIDS: To you who will contribute to the worthy Project Birmingham. You'll never regret it.

ORCHIDS: Many pretty orchids to you who are a credit to our school academically. You're making the honor roll really is something to talk about. Keep up the good work!

Well friends, it's about that time. I guess we had better sign off. But remember, We're here, we're there, we're everywhere, So beware!!!

Club Crescendo

The entire campus is now buzzing with "Probation", and there are many Clubs that are having their initiations at the same time, but the most outstanding Club is Club Crescendo's Dogs. These Fine, Intelligent, Handsome and Intellectual young men are putting all their effort into one enormous task, that of making Club Crescendo. These young men have soul ladies and gentlemen and plenty of it. They have made a great prediction, they say first they won the football game and now to complete their season they plan to drag the Baron Nets over the entire Football Field this coming Friday the 21st, from goal to goal. So come one and come all to see the spectacular event.

Club Crescendo gathered Tuesday evening to dine with their brothers on campus in the dining hall. They dined sufficiently and talked and socialized afterwards, and also displayed some of their talent by singing.

We also would like to commend our potential 13/26 pledges on their victory over the L. B. L. pledges in a pre-game performance Monday night. The 13/26 pledge club won by a narrow margin of 11 to 9. Congratulations little (sisters) (Potential).

The brothers plan to sponsor a vesper program Sunday afternoon on music. Everyone is invited to attend.

We hope everyone is applying himself to his studies because before you know it mid-term will be here. So lets see how many of us can possibly make the honor roll.

Plans are still being made and the program is about to crystalize for the up-coming Crescendo Showcase. Some of the important artist who will be star attractions are: (1) Mr. Robert Sanders our renowned pianist (2) Melvin Hayes, an exciting trumpeter (3) Oliver Bruce, a soul blowing sax-man etc. So make plans to attend our annual showcase. It is one of the milestones in the program of Club Crescendo.

CLUB TALK

Club 26 and 13-26

The members of Club 26 and Club 13/26 sincerely hope that every PV-ite is off to a good start in the course of this second semester. It is our utmost desire that every student's goal for this semester will be higher than his last one. For most of the Twenty-sixers, graduation is just around the corner. The members of Club 13/26 are looking forward with much zeal to probation.

Although we are a little late, we send best wishes to 26'er Katie Rhodes. She is now Mrs. Clifton Watson.

We are proud of 26'er Kathryn Reed and 13'er Constance Kelly who both are members of the Prairie View Symphony Orchestra which performed so well some time ago.

Congratulations are in order for 13'er Jo Ann Harrison. Jo Ann made her debut at the Prairie View Alpha Kappa Cotillion earlier this month.

Last Monday night PV-ites witnessed an unusual basketball game, unusual because girls instead of boys were on the court. The game was played between the members of Club 13/26 and the pledges of the LBL club. Club 13/26 was victorious by a score of 11-8. We commend the members of our team who were responsible for this sweet victory. They were: Estella West-9 points; Lois Samuel-2 points; Loris Cleaver, Verna Johnson, Mary Hornsby, Joyce McBride, Easter Butler; Joyce Brown, Emma Collier, Patsy Nicholson, and Shirley Bowers.

Special recognition goes to the members of Club 26 and Club 13/26 who are on the College Honor Roll for the first semester. Those on the coveted list include: Rita Burdett, Arlene Ingram, Karlen Lane, Rose Marcee, Eloise Smith, Marva Times, Jewel Williams and Eula Yancy of Club 26; Joyce Brown, Easter Butler, Marion Coss, Dolores Ervin, Esther Lyons, Joyce McBride, Joann Miles, Patsy Nicholson, Mary Hornsby, Alberta Soders, Estella West, and Rose Wright of Club 13/26. Congratulations to all PV-ites who made the honor roll.

Officers of Club 13/26 are as follows: Parsy Nicholson, president; Mary Hornsby, vice-president; Loris Cleaver, secretary;

Kappa Robertson Completes Requirements For Graduation

Kappa Sharon Robertson has completed her requirements for graduation here at Prairie View A. & M. College. Her final requirement was an organ recital on Sunday, January 19, 1964. The recital was a success and a very pleasant ending to what had been a career of service to the Prairie View Community. Sharon was first attendant to Miss Prairie View 1963-64 and Miss Baron 1962-63. Our best wishes are with Sharon always. She is presently employed at Turner High School in Carthage, Texas.

Minnie Mapps, our president for this year is doing her practice teaching at Emmett Scott High School in Tyler, Texas. Sandra Stiner, vice president and Patricia Casmer, are doing student teaching in Sealy, Texas and they seem to be enjoying the exposure to new young faces (smile). Gennie Haynes, Edith Jones, and Leola Watson are doing student teaching at the Prairie View Training School. Alice Coleman is in Brookshire and Delores Watson is in Brenham, doing student teaching. It looks like many of our Kappa sisters will be saying farewell to us soon.

Several Kappas were on hand to render their services to the Ministers at their most recent conference held here. They were Margaret Travis, Rose White, Carol Miles, and Brenda Davis. In case you have seen those elegant young ladies on campus, with triangles on their backs, Marion Coss, business manager; Easter Butler, assistant secretary; Doris Williams, treasurer; and Elsenia Soders, reporter.

PV Profs to Participate In Annual Family Relations Confab

Mrs. Zelia S. Coleman, editor of the Texas Council on Family Relations, reports a very profitable meeting at the 18th Annual Conference of the Texas group held in San Antonio.

Dr. George R. Ragland, Chairman of the Sociology Department participated in a symposium held during the two-day meeting.

The theme of the conference was — "Today's Family Adjusts to Meet Current Economic and Social Stresses".

Water, Water Everywhere

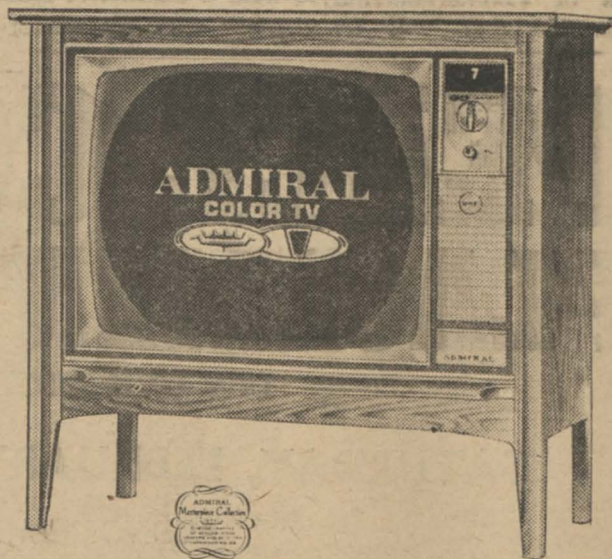

So wrote Samuel Taylor Coleridge in "The Ancient Mariner." But if the mariner were alive today he would have to literally swallow those famous words. Modern ships no longer fear the empty water casks, since it is secure in its capability to convert drinking water from the ocean itself. This is no minor accomplishment and yet it is only a step toward the achievement of a practical, economical way of changing large quantities of sea and inland saline waters to a fresh product available for agricultural, industrial and individual use.

What's In a Name

Cougar, mountain lion, catamount, and painter are all names for the same animal.

you might guess they are probates of Kappa Omega Beta Social Club. Hat's off to them for a talent show and banquet well planned. Perhaps by the time this news reaches the press the probates will almost be ready for those navy blue sweaters. Congratulations to the probates of 1964-65.

Counterquerrilla Unit

g. Motivate the ROTC cadet toward seeking a career in the US Army. The program of instruction for this unit consists of Ranger-type training, training directed toward developing proficiency in individual skills, and an understanding of the specific characteristics of Counterquerrilla operations. Training will be challenging and consist mainly of outdoor activities. Emphasis will be placed on physical conditioning of the individual and unit discipline. Instructional material will include the following subjects: Hand to Hand Combat; First Aid; Map Reading; Patrolling; Area studies; and a variety of films relating to guerrilla warfare.

In order to qualify as a counterquerrilla and the prerogative to wear a distinctive uniform, a member must satisfactorily accomplish a qualification test administered at the end of one (1) semester's counterquerrilla training. This test will include qualifications as an expert with .22 Cal. rifle, ability to march twelve (12) miles under timed conditions, Physical Training Test Score of 390, and written and practical examinations on instructional material covered during the semester.

At present, membership in the Counterquerrilla company is restricted to volunteer Advanced Course cadets. Current membership consists of approximately thirty (30) volunteer third year (Junior) Advanced Course cadets. The following officers were elected during the initial meeting of the Counterquerrilla company held on February 4, 1964:

- Commander — Cadet Carl L. Lockett
 - Executive Officer — Cadet Alvin R. Leavell
 - S-3 (Operations Officer) — Cadet Richard A. Mosby
- The organizational structure of the unit provides for a company headquarters and three detachments. As qualification tests are completed, additional leadership and staff appointments will be made.

Library Association Announces $750.00 Scholarship Award

A statewide effort encouraging more young men and women to enter the library profession received added impetus today by an announcement of scholarship aid from the Texas Library Association, according to Sister Jane Marie, C. D. P., San Antonio, president of the Association.

Sister Jane Marie said applications will be accepted until May 1, 1964 for the 1964-65 TLA $750.00 Scholarship Award. Interested persons may obtain proper application blanks from: Miss Ruth M. Junkin, Chairman TLA Scholarship Awards Committee, 3307 Liberty Street, Austin, Texas 78705.

Applicants must be residents of Texas; have been given provisional admission to the library school of his choice; have demonstrated high achievement in college study; present evidence of strong interest in librarianship; and agree to accept employment in a Texas library for two years following receipt of the degree in library science.

"The tremendous expansion in knowledge, the growth and concentration of population in metropolitan centers, and the intensified trend toward quality education has placed overwhelming demands on the libraries of Texas," Sister Jane Marie remarked.

"This new demand cannot be met without qualified librarians and today the profession in Texas could use several times as many as are now prepared to step into the literally hundreds of vacancies," the TLA president pointed out.

I doubt that the second individual realized the full meaning of his statement at the time but he had issued a profound statement with an enormity of implication. It seems that our social ladder is so maladjusted that the cuts have become battle grounds in the war for BMOG.

Let us take an appraising look at ourselves. Do we really admire those persons who chose to make themselves conspicuous in this rather detrimental way? When we sit in our meetings and speak of improving the scholastic standing, social behavior, and cultural growth of our student body, do we really have the intention of doing something about it or are we just acting as sounding brass and tinkling symbols? Whose fault is it that these people choose this method to make themselves known? Whose fault is it that the so called social elite find themselves instead of helping to correct this condition being followers of this decline?

What can be done about it? I can not and do not propose an answer. But something must be done lest we find ourselves following malicious adolescents rather than mature adults.
