PRAIRIE VIEW EXHIBITS HIGH SPIRIT DURING HOMECOMING WEEK

The week of November 16-21 marked a rare occasion in the history of Prairie View, for it was during this period that the annual homecoming celebration reached a peak of homage and enthusiasm unprecedented in the annals of the college. The homecoming spirit soared to an all time high throughout the entire week of observance from Monday's kick-off with the sale of "I Got it" tags until the Homecoming dance Saturday night.

With the dynamic leadership of the Student Council, the campus atmosphere was pervaded with the felicity of the student body who joined in the round of activities to boost their own Prairie View Panthers to another national championship. Tags worn by the students labelled "I Got it" (referring to the P. V. spirit) were sold at various places throughout the week of Homecoming. On display all over the campus were colorful and provocative posters exhibited by various classes and dormitories with the intent of making the "P. V. spirit" universal. In the front of Evans Hall was displayed a unique miniature representation of a Homecoming Day celebration.

The bonfire of Friday night, a truly elaborate and spectacular event, which was also sponsored by the Student Council, and the breakfast dance of Saturday morning were attended in large numbers by exultant students.

Homecoming Day witnessed one of the largest parades ever to be presented on the campus and the largest crowd to ever attend a game at Blackshear field. The sedulous work of students in various departments and organizations resulted in the production of the most unique and attractive floats in college history.

Culminating the week's activities was a dance on Saturday night attended by an exuberant student body having been reenforced with tremendous zest by the Panthers' victory over the Wiley Wildcats.

Hats off to the student body and Student Council for such a high-spirited Homecoming, and may its success be duplicated in the years to come.

CRESCENDOS CLOSE RED CROSS DRIVE

The Crescendos, a men's social club here at Prairie View, brought the 1959 Red Cross Fund Drive to a close.

The campus, for many years has raised a large sum in this effort and has proven important in making Waller County well-represented in the drive. The amount raised this year is $214.51, which has been turned over to the Waller County Red Cross Chapter.

Club Crescendos is to be commended for the fine work they did, with Reginald Holloway, the club's potentate, coordinating the drive among students and faculty members.

The campus representative of the County Red Cross Organization is Dr. C. A. Cood, director of information.

The Annual Boy Scout Drive closed recently and the total amount raised was $832.34.

P V WITNESSES THE LARGEST HOMECOMING IN HISTORY

Beautiful weather and plenty of gaiety marked the climax of our homecoming, for it was the first time Prairie View served as host to a crowd of approximately 15,000. Throughout the annals of the history of the college, there have been alumni and ex-students to share the spirit of homecoming with the "ole P. V. Family."

The homecoming activities actually began Friday, November 13, with the big annual bonfire and rally on the college campus. So many activities which were inclusive of the alumni dance and the breakfast dance, started soon afterwards. The reunion activities of ex-students ran concurrently with meetings.

Each year Prairie View has become accustomed to presenting a parade just before the kick-off, and this year's homecoming was no exception, for there appeared in the parade many well-decorated and beautifully designed floats, motivating as the ROTC Brigade marched to the music of the Military Band as well as to those of visiting high schools.

At the half time of the game the ROTC band marched out to the 50-yard line, faced the stand and continued to play until the Homecoming and Presentation parade reached the 40-yard line. Mr. Samuel Montgomery, the narrator introduced them to the fans.

After the introduction, Mrs. Homecoming, Mrs. Tommy S. Cood and Miss Prairie View, Miss Helen Muse, who was assisted by her escorts, stepped up to the platform at the 50-yard line where they presented flowers by Dr. E. B. Evans, Mr. Joseph Phillips, Mr. G. W. Adams. After this presentation was over, the band played the "Alma Mater," and afterwards the Panthers continued to fight with their old rivals, Wiley College Wildcats, who were overwhelmed 21-12.

FORMER PV HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE STUDIES AT MEXICO CITY COLLEGE

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 4, 1959 (Special to the PANTHER) Janet Elaine Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman T. Jones, Box 20103, Prairie View, is studying south of the border at Mexico City College, the only American-type liberal arts college in Latin America.

At MCC all classes are taught in English, except for a few in the graduate school. The credit system is the same as in U. S. colleges and universities. Courses of study, taught by a distinguished international faculty educated in Europe, Latin America, and the United States, lead to the B.A. and M.A. degrees. Average enrollment is more or less 1,000 students a quarter.

Miss Jones is a graduate of Prairie View High School and has attended Fisk University in Nashville, Tenn., and the University of Kansas in Lawrence, where she earned her B.A. A graduate student in the Spanish Department she finds herself in almost constant contact with the natives of a Spanish-speaking country.

The college, now in its twentieth year, is situated about twenty minutes' drive from Mexico's cosmopolitan capital city. From the beautifully landscaped and tree-shaded campus, one can catch breath-taking views of the twin snow-capped volcanoes, Popocatepetl and Ixtaccihuatl, and the equally magnificent sight of the city sprawled over the floor of the Valley of Mexico.

Mexico City offers innumerable pleasures and diversions ranging from the theater, art shows, concerts, and museums to bull fights, horse racing, and the fastest sport in the world, jai alai. And never too far away for a weekend or short vacation jaunt are famous resorts such as Acapulco and Vera Cruz or the archeological sites of Tula, Tootihuacan and Mitla.

MCC students come from a wide variety of countries and cultural backgrounds. Each quarter nearly every U. S. state plus numerous foreign countries are represented among the student body. On and off campus, MCC students put into practice the principle of international goodwill and return home richer and more mature from the broadening experience.

Most MCC students live in college approved homes with Mexican families. By learning something of each other's language and customs, ties of friendship between the people of the two countries are strengthened.

English Emphasis Week Culminated by Drama, "The Inspector General"

The elaborate English Emphasis Week of November 23-27 was ended by a student production, a drama presented on Thursday evening, November 27, by the Charles Gilpin Players. The drama, "The Inspector General," written by Nikolai Gogol, was attended by a large audience whose response was indicative of unanimous approval.

Under the direction of Mr. Horace J. Bond, instructor of speech and literature, this highly acclaimed drama was brought to the eyes of an applauding Prairie View family. The cast included Floyd Yancy, Charles Williams, Tommy Osborne, Sherman Wright, Joe Leonard,

THE VALUE OF A PROPER DIET

By Edison R. Fowlks
Your food shall be your medicine and your medicine shall be your food. —Hippocrates

The observance of Nutrition Week should make each student at Prairie View more conscious of the values of eating a proper diet.

It is obvious that most of us choose our food according to the salivary taste, to the neglect of its nutritional value.

Not only does the mere eating of proper food promise one a healthy body, but the preparation of the food is of significance.

Through the observance of Nutrition Week, one should be able to apply the knowledge of food and its properties to the keeping of his body in perfect condition.

With health, everything is a source of pleasure; without it, nothing else, whatever it may be, is enjoyable.

Wishing All You Good PV-ites a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

Lost In Someone's World

By Efton Geary
Lost in someone's world,
Yet I have a feeling of control.
When the tide comes in and caresses the shore,
There will be no loneliness.

The sun beats down, making the ground uncomfortable
When the tide goes out.
Left here to drift with the wind,
The grains of sand scatter with the hands of time,
Keeping with them the memories of what couldn't have been.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:
In reading your article in the October issue on Alcoholism: a Great Threat, I found it to be very informative and suggestive.

Alleviating the abusive use of alcohol is a nebulous problem. I don't feel the problem can be solved as you suggested by informing individuals as to the danger of alcohol or intoxicants through schools, churches, mass entertainment media.

I think alcoholism is a disease and should be treated as such. To understand one so afflicted, a clear picture of what alcohol does is necessary.

DEPARTMENTAL TESTS

By C. G. Contee, Department of History

In the November issue of the PANTHER, Editor Fowlks again condemned the use of departmental test by several departments on the grounds that the tests were poorly constructed, tested what was not actually covered in the classroom, reflected the opinions of only a few of the teachers, students performed poorly on these tests to the detriment of their academic status.

The question arises: To what extent are the departmental tests responsible for the low academic status of the studentry? Surely the students of Prairie View know that these tests are the products of many hours of discussion and planning as to both content and method.

HAS CHRISTMAS BECOME GIFT DOMINATED?

By Olivia M. Gray

There will be people in every community who are not going to have a Merry Christmas and it will not be because they have not received the gifts that they want.

Christmas has now been reduced to such a great gift exchanging activity that one has to wonder if the spirit of Christmas has not been lost.

There are many things that can make Christmas more meaningful than a gift exchanging season. Daily there are people who try to bring goodwill to an everyday world.

About ten years ago, the Tuberculosis Association started to sell Christmas seals during the Christmas season as an effort to aid those persons suffering from tuberculosis.

Dr. Flannigan established the Boys' Club of America to provide a home and many activities for boys all over America.

Besides these national campaigns, people have done caroling in the communities, hospitals, and old folks' homes.

Gestures as these would be interesting, beneficial, and quite timely during this season.

It can be easily seen that the Christmas season doesn't have to be spent purchasing gifts. The true meaning of Christmas can be brought out better if we just try doing things for others to make them happy.

JOHN LAUD JOHNSON

"Yourself Is Important"

By Joe W. Booker

Fear to be yourself—to think your own thoughts, dream your own dreams, and meet your own challenges. Be not too easily taken by what others say.

Once a man said: "To your own self be loyal and it shall follow as days through the weeks, you cannot then be dishonorable to any man." Another man once said: "Do not take from any man his pride." By that I mean do not take his self-respect; either from your self or another.

You may make mistakes you may feel mistreated; you may angrily regret the punishment you have been given. But if you are loyal to yourself no one else can harm you, no one can hurt you.

There is just one law to obey—There is just one law to worship—and that is the law of your own spirit.

That is the existing truth within you. Keep that going, keep that unbroken, keep that eager. For whatever is in the future, nothing else matters.

STUDENTS RESIST URGE FOR BIG CHRISTMAS STUDY PLAN

By Robert M. Baker

Even as Prairie View students listen to Christmas songs, attend Christmas parties and get ready for the holiday season, more and more are committing themselves to study—"just a little bit" during the Christmas vacation.

The big question making the rounds right now is—Should Students have to Study during the Holidays? Do you plan to utilize your time studying during the Christmas holiday break? Or do you plan to govern yourselves accordingly?

Campus opinion is divided on this question. Fifty per cent of the students feel that students should do some studying during the break. Others feel that students should not spend their time studying during the break.

George Thomas, a junior, felt that if you have any leisure time during the break, you should catch up on your work as well as do some advance work toward the finals.

Bernard Parker, a junior, also expressed his views concerning the question, which was students should spend time studying during the break, because the finals are approaching nigh.

According to Wilford White, a sophomore, takes the jubilant attitude by saying, "Spend your time resting, partying, and good timing on the streets." He also stated that when he leaves school, he will leave his books and lessons behind him and upon his return will get back into the groove.

Another member of this institution, Troy Johnson, a freshman, expressed his views concerning the holiday period. He stated, "That a holiday is designed for a specific purpose and that is to enjoy yourself as well as enjoy the things that go along with it; for instance, being invited out to various parties along with dining with the family and friends.

Dr. Ronald Rousseve, a professor in the Department of Education, feels that a holiday should be regarded principally as a holiday, still, to abandon the academic experiences completely is unfortunate, if only because it tends to interfere with the most wholesome kind of refinement and learning.

Dr. William Cash, director of counseling, feels that the students should study if there is need for it. If the mature student feels that he should not study, then do not. He is saying that it should be left up to the individual.

Mr. Perry Daugherty, a professor in the Department of Economics, feels that you should study during the break, but not the whole two weeks straight. He feels that you should divide your time during the break by devoting thirty minutes per day for studying. He says, "That every man should study, whether he is a student or not, in order to expand his knowledge on happenings going on throughout the world."

Any responsible student should spend his time enjoying both, partying as well as studying.

VETERANS DAY SPEAKER

Major General C. Stanto Babcock spoke to the general assembly during the observance of Veterans Day.

Omar Khayyám writes a new jingle

A jug of Wine, A loaf of Bread and Winston's Filter-Blend!

Old Omar has come up with another corker of a couplet. Freely translated from the Persian:

It's what's up front that counts If it hasn't got it there it hasn't got it

True, the lines don't scan. But what do you expect from a tent-maker—the perfect rhyme of "Winston tastes good like a cigarette should"? We'll admit that something may have been lost in the translation. But when it comes to Winston, nothing is lost in the translation of rich, good tobacco taste. That's because up front of a pure white filter Winston has Filter-Blend—a special selection of mild flavorful tobaccos specially processed for filter smoking. Winston is designed to taste good. Or, as Omar puts it: The Moving Lighter lights; and having lit, Flicks off. Then you draw on IT, And bit by bit smoking pleasure mounts; With Filter-Blend up front, Winston's got what counts!

LADIES FASHIONS

Our fashion flair for this year has not set a pattern. The well dressed woman can choose from most all styles and be in high fashion.

Winnie Stokes, Elbert James, James Mosby, Phillip Fretty, Al Burris, Eleanor Fifer, Jackie Hoffman, Efton Geary, and Bennie Allen.

The play presented was an adaptation of Nikolai Gogol's "Inspector General" by John Anderson. It was first presented by Jed Harris in the Hudson Theater in New York City, on December 23, 1930.

This production is universally conceded to be one of the greatest European comedies to be presented in the past century. This high-spirited satire on official crookedness and human stupidity has remained fresh on the stages of the theatrical capitals of the world.

Persons who assisted Mr. Bond in the production included: Mr. S. M. Jackson, instructor in speech and Shakespeare, voice and diction coach; Acy Graham, production chief; Francis Fry, lights; Eliza Kendall, Francis Jones, Margaret Jones, Gloria Levineston, Shirley Thomas, men's coats; J. M. Wilson, supervisor of previous committees; Elnora Fifer, Lenola Busby, women's dresses; Dorothy J. DEPARTMENTAL TESTS tests, many instructors have found that Prairie View students before they arrive here, have not been accustomed to carefully constructed examinations. Therefore, a conclusion can be drawn that the departmental tests are not the responsible agents for the low academic record of many of the students.

If the departmental examinations are responsible for the low academic standing of many of the students, what, then, is the reason? It is not a single reason, but it is a combination of many reasons. One of the major causes for the low academic records is the failure of many students to accept their responsibilities as students. Many of the students come to class unprepared with the expectation that the instructors will tell all of the examination answers in the classroom.

What conclusions can be drawn from this debate? The facts about a controversial subject should be obtained before any general statements of either praise or condemnation can be made. Furthermore, one must keep in mind that there are several reasons for the low academic status of the Prairie View student. And perhaps what is most significant is the fact that Prairie View is showing signs of growth in the area of student-teacher relationships by permitting criticism of the teaching and of the testing procedures, by the students.

Other contributions of interest attributed to the K. O. B.'s are Miss Carl Halton has been elected Baron Sweetheart, Kathryn Weisner and Mae Garcia has been chosen for Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

DEBUTANTES—Twenty-three Prairie View co-eds were presented on November 14, during the annual AKA's affair. The Debutante Ball is becoming one of the highlights of the campus social calendar.

S. N. E. A.

The Prairie View chapter of the Student National Educational Association presented its annual vesper program, November 15th. The program came as a culmination of the American Education Week.

A skit, "What Kind Of Teacher Do We Want?" was presented. It portrayed three types of teachers, the traditional teacher, who is strict, played by Juantia Jones, the teacher who teaches only for the money, played by Glory Tell, and the ideal teacher who is democratic and enjoys her work, played by Earlyne Swisher. Members of the SNEA played the parts of the students, other participants on the program were Mary Littleton, Patricia Hobbs, Margie Dean, and Eddie Pryor.

The officers of the club are, Margaret Duffy, President; Glory Tell, vice president; Willie Briscoe, secretary; Sylvia Mooney, asst. secretary; Ethel Wheeler, treasurer; and Scott Westbrook, III, parliamentarian. Miss A. C. Preston is the sponsor of the group with Miss D. Bardine and Dr. J. Echols serving as co-sponsors.

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

By Kathryn Weisner

The Christmas Spirit really began with the birth of Christ. The same humane qualities that prompted the Three Wise Men to follow the star, laden with gifts for the new born Christ child, is still within the hearts of men.

Ever since Saint Nicholas, who had such a kind and loving heart, gave toys to the little children of his village, long ago on the 25th of December, the legend of Santa Claus has been re-occurring. The story was handed down through the ages with changes in names and geographical setting according to the localities where the story was being cited. At first, it was a means of getting the children to be good, by telling them that if they weren't good Santa Claus would not come to them. Of course, they believed this and tried to do everything their parents told them. But children were not children!

On Christmas Eve, the night before Christmas, they were put to bed early and told to go to sleep or Santa Claus would put ashes in their eyes. The real reason was that Mother and Dad had to play Santa Claus and distribute the gifts. Mother, heretofore, had been busy preparing cakes, pies, and all manners of good things to eat. I guess that's what makes the real Christmas spirit, the preparation, getting ready for that joyous day.

Not too many years ago Christmas was still a novelty. I guess it's still a novelty to small children of today, but from my late-adolescence eyes, I cannot conceive how it can be. Not too many years ago, children were immensely overjoyed to receive toys at Christmas time, to receive fruits, candies, and goodies. They were overjoyed because these things were not acquired any time of the year or month or week. The reason for this is that the families' financial status was not of the type that allowed for those kinds of luxuries.

Children of today, in most families, can acquire toys, fruits, candies, etc., every day, figuratively speaking.

This does not illustrate that they do not have the Christmas spirit or that the Christmas spirit is dying. The spirit of Christmas lives in the hearts of the old as well as the young. The spirit will never die as long as people give gifts from their hearts, as long as people believe in a Supreme Being, as long as children are taught that it is better to give than to receive.

This is the spirit of Christmas. Feel it in your heart, let the goodness of His love spread out and touch your neighbor.

NAT'L TEACHER EXAM SCHEDULED FOR FEB.

Prairie View A. & M. College has been designated as a testing center for the 1960 Nationwide administration of the National Teacher Examination next February, Dr. E. B. Evans announced today.

College seniors preparing to teach and teachers applying for positions in school systems which encourage or require applicants to submit their scores on the National Teacher Examinations along with their other credentials are eligible to take the tests. The examinations are prepared and administered annually by Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey.

The designation of Prairie View A. & M. as a testing center for these examinations will give prospective teachers in this area an opportunity to compare their performance on the examination with approximately 10,000 candidates throughout the country who will be participating in the nationwide administration on February 13, 1960, Dr. Evans said. At the one-day testing session a candidate may take the Common Examinations, which include tests in Professional Information, General Culture, English Expression, and Nonverbal Reasoning. In addition, each candidate may take one or two of the eleven Optional Examinations which are designed to demonstrate mastery of subject matter in the fields in which he may be assigned to teach.

Applicants for the examination and a Bulletin of Information describing registration procedures and containing representative test questions may be obtained from Dr. W. L. Cash, Jr., or directly from the National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey. Prospective teachers planning to take the test should secure an application blank and a Bulletin of Information promptly, Dr. Cash advised.

LUCKY STRIKE presents

Dear Dr. Frood:

Field-goal expert kicks about classes

(See below)

DR. FROOD'S MORAL OF THE MONTH:

Make the most of your college days. (The nights will probably haunt you the rest of your life.)

Dear Dr. Frood: Is it all right to study with the TV on? Distracted

Dear Distracted: Better not. You might miss some of the story.

Dear Dr. Frood: The Dean is trying to force me to go to classes. I think this is unfair because last season I scored 16 touchdowns, intercepted 18 passes and kicked 22 field goals in 23 attempts. What should I do? Letter Man

Dear Letter Man: I fail to see how going to classes will help. Better practice your kicking.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am a very plain girl and I don't have much personality. All I want is a man who will love me. Why can't I find one? Sad

Dear Sad: You're too particular.

Dear Dr. Frood: How can I keep people from borrowing my Luckies? Pestered

Dear Pestered: Put them in a Brand X pack.

DR. FROOD ON HOW TO BE A BEATNIK

I've drawn up instructions for becoming a Beatnik: Let your hair grow until your hearing is noticeably impaired. When beard covers your tie, discard tie. Hang your shoes and socks in effigy. Sell your sink for scrap. Stock your room with cigarettes—because you won't be allowed on the street any more. (Better make 'em Luckies and enjoy your isolation!)

Dear Dr. Frood: My husband teaches at a girl's college. I know it's silly, but since I'm middle-aged and stout, I am very jealous and worry all the time. What should I do? Plump, Tired

Dear Plump, Tired: Keep worrying.

COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE MORE LUCKIES THAN ANY OTHER REGULAR!

PRAIRIE VIEW PANTHERS WALLOP WILEY WILCATS 21-12

By Efton Geary

The Prairie View Panthers walloped the Wiley Wilcats 21-12 before a highly partisan homecoming crowd of 15,000. Beautiful weather and plenty of homecoming color provided the setting for the Panther victory.

The Panthers took immediate possession after the kick off to Wiley, as they held the Wilcats to no gain on the first three plays. After a series of punt exchanges the Panthers then set up their first score.

THEY ARE READY!

By Joe W. Booker

"Ready for the Bowl Game"

Weighing 180 pounds and standing 5 feet and 11 inches, is a junior majoring in Industrial Education; and he throws the pigskin and is the man you see behind the center barking signals for the Panthers. The person who fits this description is none other than Panther Ace, Joel (Baby Joe) Smith.

Smith has a punting average of 42 yards and is considered as one of the best punters in the Southwest Conference. Smith is from Galveston and is a graduate of Central High School. After finishing high school, he was flooded with scholarships; he had scholarships to such outstanding colleges as Florida A. & M., Tennessee State, West Virginia, Maryland, Grambling, Wiley, Paul Quinn, and several others. Smith liked Prairie View best of all.

"Ready for the Attack"

Charles Fisher, a 190 pound end on the Panthers' squad who hails from Marshall, Texas, is a senior majoring in Industrial Education. Fisher is a standout on both offensive and defensive. Being one of the smallest ends on the squad has not slowed him down on this good performance on defense.

As a high school boy, he was captain of his district championship football team in 1955. Fisher was a three year letterman, making all-district three years. He was also an outstanding track captain and member, running the high hurdles and throwing the discus.

At present, Fisher is captain of the Panther Baseball Team where he made All-Southwest Conference Team in 1959.

"Ready for Cage Attack"

Zelmo Beatty, 6 feet, 7 inches, weighing 237 pounds is a sophomore center majoring in Physical Education. Beatty is one of the better players in the Southwest, and will be a great contributor to the Panthers' basketball team.

Last season as a freshman, Beatty was among the top scorers and rebounders in the Southwest Conference, ranking with such greats as: TSU's Willie Taylor, Grambling's Little Abe, and Wiley's Charles Harper. This season Beatty is expected to be All-Southwest Conference, and leading scorer and rebounder in the conference.

Thomas Redmon—Another Panther star who will aid Beatty in making the Panther a double threat. Redmon is a 200 pound and 6'4" forward and is one of the best all-round players in the conference. For his size, Redmon is a good dribbler and has a deadly eye from the outside. When he starts hitting he will be hard to stop. Redmon is a sophomore and like Beatty, has a long time to prove himself as a "Panther Great." He is a Physical Education major who hails from Beaumont.

With Beatty and Redmond on the boards, the Panthers will be hard to stop.

This was a pass from David Webster to Frank McKee for a 16 yard touchdown. Porter kicked the point. Late in the first quarter Edgar Johnson intercepted a Wiley pass and raced 44 yards for the second Panther score. Clifton Gillard made the last Panther touchdown with a 10 yard plunge over left end.

During the second half, the Panthers used a combination of their third and fourth units, because of some injuries to key Panther players. It is noted that Wiley scored both of their touchdowns off these alternate units.

The first Wiley score came after a Panther fumble and a 26 yard pass which placed the ball on the Panther one yard line. On a third down play with a yard needed for a first down the Panther alternate unit held, but the Panthers were penalized for being off side. This moved the ball to the one foot line. The Wilcats took advantage of this as quarterback Edgar Flakes plunged over for the score. Wiley scored again as they took advantage of another Panther mistake. This resulted in a mid-air catch of a Panther fumble, and George Money trekked 38 yards for the score.

The Panther first unit was returned to the game, and again the mighty power of Wiley was humbled.

The Prairie View Panthers will again participate in the Orange Blossom Classic on Dec. 5. We wish the Panthers all of the luck in the world as they tangle with Florida A. & M. Having worked with the team as student sports editor, and knowing their strength, the Panthers will again be favorites to win the classic. The game will be tighter than last year's score of 28 to 8. I pick the Panthers over Florida 21 to 13.
